Fadnavis meets Guv, demands Maha floor test

Says govt has lost majority; Koshyari to seek legal opinion before calling special session

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI AND RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR
@ Mumbai/New Delhi

THE ongoing political drama in Maharashtra moved into high gear on Tuesday after a BJP delegation led by former chief minister Devendra Fadnavis met Governor Bhagat Singh Koshyari and requested him to ask the Uddhav government to seek a floor test, saying it has lost its majority.

Earlier in the day, Fadnavis flew into Delhi along with senior advocate Mahesh Jethmalani to consult home minister Amit Shah and party chief J P Nadda. Sources said the Governor will seek legal opinion before deciding on a special session of Maharashtra Assembly for the floor test.

As for beleaguered Chief Minister Uddhav Thackeray, he made yet another emotional appeal to his party's rebel legislators led by Eknath Shinde to save his chair, requesting them to return from Guwahati to thrash out a solution. Parallelly, his wife Rashmi called up family members of the rebels, invoking the family spirit and asking them to request their spouses to return.

Fadnavis reportedly conveyed to the party brass that there were two options. One, staking the BJP's claim with the backing of rebels by promising them proportional representation in the state cabinet; and two, facilitating a no-confidence motion by the rebels.

Hindutva card

Uddhav sought to play the Hindutva card, by deciding to push through a proposal to rename Aurangabad as Sambhaji Nagar in the state cabinet on Wednesday. The dilution of Hindutva by the Sena was one of the factors that triggered the rebellion

Within the rebel camp, there were different voices on the next steps. "While one section wants a merger with the BJP, others are in favour of retaining the Sena identity. The latter want a meeting with Uddhav find a way out," said a person camped in Guwahati.

He added that most of the rebels are not allowed to speak freely. "They are missing their families and constituencies. They are pressuring Shinde for a solution." But Shinde rubbished claims that the rebels were in touch with Uddhav. P10

Advantage India as G7 wants Russia oil price cap

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

IN a bid to weaken Russia's ability to fund the Ukraine war, the Group of Seven (G7) leaders on Tuesday agreed to develop a price cap mechanism for Russian oil. According to reports, the G7 leaders discussed the US' suggestion that a price cap decided by consuming countries be imposed. While the contours of the scheme have not been announced, reports say Moscow will be allowed to recover production cost and earn a very small profit for its petroleum products.

For India, which currently imports 10% of its total crude requirements from Russia, the move will be beneficial as it will help combat inflation. Before the Ukraine war, India used to import just 0.2% of its total oil needs from Russia. As the western countries put sanctions on Russian oil, Moscow started offering deep discounts for its products. Thus, Indian Oil Marketing Companies purchased Russian Ural crude oil at discounts as high as $30 per barrel. Reports say 40% Russian oil was purchased by private firms including Reliance Industries and Rosneft-backed Nayara Energy.

However, experts say consuming countries can't enforce such a price ceiling. "Russian oil is anyway available at $30-35 discount to India. Even if G7 imposes a ceiling on paper, there will be significant leakages as witnessed from Europe's so-called ban on Russian energy. I don't foresee any major shift in India's import bill with a price ceiling on Russian crude," said Debopam Chaudhury, chief economist and head of research at TruBoard Partners.

Russia produces around 11 million barrels per day of crude oil, and exports 5-6 million barrels per day. Moscow earned around $110 billion in 2021 from oil exports, which accounts for 45% of its total income in 2021.

Tailor butchered for backing Nupur

RAJESH ASNANI @ Jaipur

IN a horrific hate crime in Rajasthan's Udaipur district, two men on Tuesday killed a tailor who had recently expressed support for suspended BJP leader Nupur Sharma over controversial remarks on Prophet Mohammad. The killers, who also posted videos of their brutal attack claiming they did it to avenge insult to Islam, have been arrested. In the video, they also threatened to target Nupur Sharma and even Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

Kanhaiya Lal

The attackers, identified as Gos Mohammad and Riyaz, came on a bike at around 2.30 pm on Tuesday. They entered the tailoring shop of Kanhaiya Lal (40) on the pretext of giving measurements and suddenly attacked him with sharp weapons. They also reportedly slit his throat with a cleaver. The killers then fled the scene. Soon after the incident, a large crowd gathered at the spot and demanded tough action against the culprits.

Rajasthan CM Ashok Gehlot tweeted that no effort will be spared in catching the culprits and a detailed probe will be conducted over the brutal incident.

Curfew has been imposed in many parts of Udaipur and markets are shut. Internet has been suspended across Rajasthan for 24 hours.

The victim had posted on social media in support of Nupur Sharma some 10 days ago.

KERC shocker: Pay higher power bills from July 1

BOSKY KHANNA @ Bengaluru

JUST three months after increasing the power tariff by five paise per unit, consumers are again in for a shock as they have to shell out more per unit of power consumed from July 1, 2022.

Karnataka Electricity Regulatory Commission (KERC) has approved the proposal submitted by the electricity supply companies (Escoms) to revise the power tariff and pass on the fuel cost adjustment charges on to the consumers.

According to the KERC order, in order to meet the overall power purchase cost, during the fourth quarter for financial year 2022, it has been decided to allow Escoms to collect fuel adjustment charges (FAC) per unit in all the energy bills to be issued to their respective consumers from July 1, 2022 to December 31, 2022. Zubair sent to 4 more days of police custody

@ New Delhi

A Delhi court on Tuesday remanded senior journalist and Alt News' co-founder Mohammed Zubair in four-day police custody. The police had arrested him on Monday in connection with a four-year-old tweet, alleging it had led to a Twitter storm, hurting religious sentiments and promoting enmity.

Media and human rights organisations like Amnesty India, Editors Guild and Press Club of India strongly condemned the arrest, calling it extremely disturbing.

Chief Metropolitan Magistrate Snigdha Sarvaria said, "Four-day police remand is being granted since the accused is to be taken to Bengaluru."

Appearing for Zubair, senior advocate Vrinda Grover argued that he was being maliciously targeted and that the case as a whole borders on ridiculousness. She alleged that Zubair was targeted because of his religious identity. "Many have tweeted the same, the only difference between those handles and mine is my faith, my name and my profession." P9

Zameer accused of arm-twisting Palike on Idgah

BBMP denies BJP leader Ramesh's charges

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

IN a fresh development to Chamarajpet Idgah land dispute, former ruling party leader in BBMP Council and BJP leader N R Ramesh has accused MLA B Z Zameer Ahmed Khan of arm-twisting the BBMP, a charge BBMP Special Commissioner S M Srinivasa denied.

Stating that the contentious land belongs to BBMP, Ramesh claimed that in 1964, the then mayor held his oath-taking ceremony on this land and that there are records which date back to 1935 to prove it.

Ramesh also met Special Commissioner Ramprasat Manohar and handed over a set of documents.

"The Chief Commissioner has recently said that it has no rights over the land as it belongs to the Wakf Board and asked it to apply for khatha. Recently, Zameer met him and it appears he must have influenced the Palike. Now efforts are on to convert the Rs 150 crore worth Palike property into Wakf land." Ramesh charged.

BBMP responds

BBMP Special Commissioner, West Zone, S M Srinivasa refuted Ramesh's charges. He said the BBMP has received documents from Wakf Board and has 45 days time to check them. If necessary, it will ask for more records and may also issue another notice to Wakf Board in this regard. "Idgah land belongs to BBMP as per Survey records. Now, Wakf Board has given a requisition saying it has documents dating back to 1964. We are verifying that. Some people say BBMP has given the khatha to Wakf Board already, but that is not true," said Srinivasa.

Earlier this month, the land dispute made headlines after some Hindu outfits gave representation to Palike West Zone Commissioner seeking permission to hold events including International Yoga Day. The BBMP earlier stated that some documents show the land as Palike property. Later, Central Muslim Association (CMA), the caretaker of the land, sent records to claim ownership of the land.

BBMP gets thousands of objections to delimitation

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

IN the wake of the Karnataka government issuing the draft notification for 243 wards, it is said that the Urban Development Department has received thousands of objections related to delimitation.

BBMP sources said the objections have also come from AAP, SDPI, Congress and others. The main contention is that the ward delimitation is "unscientific", it is against minority dominated wards, breaking of such wards and merging them with others, targeting assemblies and wards represented by other parties, splitting of layouts, removal of names with historical significance and renaming to suit one section. Some say that filing of taxes and seeking loans will become an issue with the delimitation.

On Friday, the government had issued the notification on delimitation of wards, raising the existing ward numbers from 198 to 243. The government as well as BBMP had stressed that objections can only be submitted physically at Vidhana Soudha and not through online within 15 days.

Earlier, KPCC Working President and former Bengaluru In-charge Minister Ramalinga Reddy had attacked the government saying that the delimitation was prepared not by authorities, but by BJP and RSS leaders at 'Keshava Krupa' (State RSS headquarters). "They have altered many assemblies ruled by Congress to suit their needs. We object to this delimitation," he said.

Candlelight vigil held for Zubair across state

BENGALURU: Extending support to jailed Alt News co-founder and journalist Mohammed Zubair, citizen's group Bahutva Karnataka on Tuesday organised a candlelight vigil in various districts wherein people stood outside their houses and offices with lit candles. Forum's Vinay Srinivasa said the arrest of Zubair is an assault on the country's democracy. "The mere fact that he was arrested for a satirical tweet from 2018 is plain harassment," he added. Suvarna Janshakti's Akkai Padmashalli, an activist, also spoke in support of Zubair. She condemned such "fascist notions" and said voicing the support together is very much needed as the country should not lose another Gauri Lankesh. ENS

HC raps BBMP for non-compliance of pothole orders

BENGALURU: Taking the Bruhat BBMP to task for not issuing the work order to American Road Technology Solutions, an agency which was entrusted to fill potholes, the Karnataka High Court on Tuesday directed the palike Chief Commissioner and the officials concerned to be present before it on Wednesday. The court also rapped the civic body for not complying with orders to submit a joint survey report on identifying potholes in all the eight zones in the city. Orally observing that it will pass an order which will not be in the good interest of officials "sitting comfortably in the BBMP office", a division bench of Chief Justice Ritu Raj Awasthi and Justice Sachin Shankar Magadum cautioned this is the final opportunity for the BBMP to comply with the directions of the court. ENS

HIGHEST HONOUR

Postal Assistant from K'taka wins Meghdoot award

S LALITHA @Bengaluru

T Dhananjaya, Postal Assistant at the Chief Postal Manager General office in Bengaluru, is overwhelmed by the honour accorded to him on Tuesday. The 39 year old is the recipient of the Meghdoot award 2021, the highest honour in the country for an employee in the Postal Department, which recognises excellence.

Dhananjaya, a native of Chendage village in Tumakuru, is the only one from Karnataka to bag the award and one of eight in the country. Ashwini Vaishnaw, Union Communications and Electronics and Information Technology Minister, and Devusinh Chauhan, Minister of State for Communications, handed the Meghdoot awards to the recipients in New Delhi.

Speaking to TNIE from New Delhi after receiving the award, Dhananjaya said, "I feel very happy as all my hardwork has been recognised with such a unique honour."

The BCom graduate started his career as Postal Assistant in the Shivamogga Division in 2009 and shifted two years later to the Postal Life Insurance unit in South Karnataka Region.

His citation lauded the web-based application designed by him during the Covid lockdown period -- Anche Mitra (Postal Friend) – which helped customers with digital services. The 'Get Well Soon' app designed by Dhananjana helped the postal fraternity and their families during the pandemic.

Chief Postmaster General, Karnataka Circle, Rajendra Kumar S said, "Dhananjaya has contributed immensely to PLI technology that has helped improve quality of service. He was instrumental in designing the centralised system of commission payment directly to the accounts of the sales force in Karnataka."

Dhananjaya lives at T Dasarahalli with his parents, his wife, Manasa G, and young children Sohan Shetty and Anuksha Shetty.

PETER VIDAL

29th June: After I mentioned time-travel yesterday another point occurred to me - that it would play havoc with astrology. The astrology we have now depends on the cycles of time proceeding into the future in a fairly orderly fashion. If people start jumping around from time to time, I doubt whether the astrologers could keep up!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
If relationships with children or younger relatives have been complicated, put the past behind you and concentrate on having a simple and fulfilling time from here on. There will be more tension, but everything depends on how you handle it. Remember, restraint impresses people.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
The Sun is now about to start shedding new light on matters which have been buried for far too long. If you're smarting after recent family disputes, then you now have two weeks to deal with all underlying problems. Start by asking partners what they think - and how they feel.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
If you have ever wondered why other people are so very strange, but have been unable to find the answer, you may have been looking in the wrong place. Your planets now suggest that the answer lies with you as much as with anyone else. Perhaps your actions have even had unintended consequences.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
Your finances have certainly seen some changes over the past few weeks, and there are more to come. You can now use your time to build up your personal funds for the future. Even in romantic affairs, much depends on what you can afford. Hopefully partners will be understanding.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
The Moon commences a new relationship with your sign, so it's now a special time for Leos. You're therefore entering a cycle which favours personal resolutions for the future: do yourself a favour and make a wish! But will it come true? You'll never know unless you try!

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Friends and rivals agree over what needs to be done. Yet it is possible that what is now begun will be completed in a very different form from your current expectations. In love, take it easy and play it cool. Oh, and don't forget a promise you made some time ago.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
Your social life is about to be revived and reinvigorated in a rather surprising manner. You may be aware of new possibilities as early as tomorrow, but it may be as long as two weeks before the desired invitations arrive. Perhaps it's just that partners are impossibly slow.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
One particular new situation at home should be discussed without delay. You are surprisingly good at getting practical talks going when you have to and, if you can knock some sense into a partner's head, you'll do them an enormous favour. There's no doubt about it!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
You'll soon spend a little extra time mulling over the financial situation. There are of course shopping trips to make, but such routine matters seem to be but the tip of an iceberg which at its depths touches all that is most fundamental in your life.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Happily, the Moon is in a helpful position. You can afford to embark on the day's schedule with supreme confidence, but you will also have to be honest and upfront about your true feelings. Nobody will respect you if you attempt to pull the wool over their eyes.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
No matter how hard other people try, don't let them prise any secrets out of you. And, if you have any spare time, do spend a few moments by yourself in quiet contemplation, free from the responsibilities and distractions of the modern age. You need to work out exactly what you really think.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
That passionate pair, Venus and Mars, encourage intense desires, but somehow make you feel a little inhibited at the same time. Just how you are going to pick your way through this emotional dilemma is a question which is at present as clear as mud!

"Since ABArK covered all citizens irrespective of their financial status, most patients were referred from government to private hospitals for treatment. Those in private hospitals have later received free treatment under ABArk by getting a letter from the district health officers," stakeholders of private hospitals said.

They pointed out, "The cost of packages for treatment of patients referred by government under ABArk to private hospitals should be fixed/capped scientifically, after a costing audit and consultation with representatives of private stakeholders. They must cap cost of consumables at hospitals, medical equipments like ventilators which have skyrocketed after pandemic. Taxes should be cut or GST for capital goods or custom duty should be cut for imported goods like life-saving equipments," they said.

BBMP mulling to bring back mask fine

Bengaluru: The BBMP in view of the rising Covid-19 cases had made wearing mask compulsory but now they are also mulling of imposing penalty. BBMP Special Commissioner for Health, Trilok Chandra told media persons that the technical advisory committee had reportedly stressed to bring back penalty as people were found violating mask rules. As cases in Mahadevpura Zone in particular are high, Chandra said that the municipality is conducting 17,000 tests daily of which 600 to 700 are positive cases. Most of them are recovering at home, he added. "Only 60 cases required admission at private hospitals and 10 patients are getting treated at their respective wards. The genome sequencing is also on," he said. The Commissioner stressed that efforts are on to increase the vaccination and booster dose coverage in Mahadevpura Zone. The Palike is said to have sent the proposal on penalty to government and a decision is pending.

Ensure officers cuffing have body cams: HC directs DGP

ENS @Bengaluru

THE Karnataka HC on Tuesday directed the DGP to make body cameras available to all police officers, who are allowed to make arrests, to show the manner of arrests.

This was one of many directions issued by the court to police officers and trial courts on handcuffing accused, undertrial prisoners or convicts, while ordering the state government to pay a ₹2 lakh compensation to a youth, who was illegally handcuffed by the Ankali police in Belagavi in a cheque bounce case.

IN THE HC

"The camera should be equipped with a microphone. The video with audio recording should be retained for a year. An SOP should be prepared by the DGP and training provided to arresting officers," the court said.

Allowing the petition filed by Suprit Ishwar Divate, a farmer from Yadur of Chikodi in Belagavi district, Justice Suraj Govindaraj granted the government the liberty to recover the compensation amount from the delinquent officers. "The petitioner has claimed ₹25 lakh as compensation... It cannot be awarded taking into consideration he was a student and the arrest was made in furtherance of an NBW which had been issued. The arrest being proper, the question being handcuffing not being required, I deem it fit to award ₹2 lakh as compensation," it said.

Two drown in pond as supporting wire breaks

PRAVEEN KUMAR @ Bengaluru

A 29-year-old private firm employee, a resident of HSR Layout 2nd sector, along with his friend have drowned in an agricultural pond in the outskirts of the city near Bidadi. The two along with three others had reportedly gone to a party and consumed alcohol. The two were swimming in the 15-feet deep pond, supported by the wire. When the wire broke, the duo began to drown, and the three other friends, who were about to enter the pond, ran to a nearby friend to call for help.

By the time some locals arrived at the scene, the two were already dead.

The deceased Shruthi Kumar K, the private firm employee and his friend Harish Kumar, drowned in the pond owned by Bore Gowda on Sunday. Shruthi Kumar, a bachelor, is said to be addicted to alcohol, and every weekend he would go to his aunt's farmhouse with his friends in the outskirts of the city and return on Sunday night. On Sunday afternoon, a group of five friends had gone to the farm house and had consumed alcohol before lunch. They had gon for a swim in an inebriated state.

"The two victims were taking support of a wire and were swimming. After the wire broke, they were unable to come out as the plastic cover which was used to store water inside the pond was slippery. We suspect we didn't know swimming. Initially, Harish is said to have drowned and Shruthi trying to help him also drowned. The other friends ran to the nearby farmhouses for help," said an officer.

The postmortem was conducted in a government hospital in Channapatana.

Union ministry seeks details of 40% cut scam

Contacts contractors' assn head, Min says probe will unearth truth

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

IN a fresh development in allegations by contractors against the state government that they have to pay 40 per cent commission to get projects sanctioned, the Union Ministry of Home Affairs has sought documents from the Karnataka Contractors' Association, said its president Kempanna here on Tuesday.

Labour Minister A Shivaram Hebbar, too, confirmed it in Shivamogga, saying it is a good move by the central government to probe the controversy.

Kempanna told The New Indian Express that when he was in Mysuru on Friday, some officials claiming to be from the Union Home Department had visited his office in Chamarajpet. "Our staff asked for their identities and took photos of their ID cards. I told them I will meet them today. They said they will let me know where to come with the documents by 11.30 am today. But since the news was out, they changed their plans and told me they will contact me later," he added.

It was initially reported that the Prime Minister's Office is monitoring the case and some officials from the PMO called Kempanna seeking details. But Kempanna said he was contacted only by Home Department officials.

A few months ago, the suicide of Belagavi-based civil contractor Santosh Patil in Udupi alleging a former minister's role in the commission scam had put the BJP government in a tight spot. The issue became a fodder for the opposition, which staged protests seeking immediate sacking of RDPR Minister KS Eshwarappa. Following pressure from the high command, the minister stepped down later.

> I am waiting for Sudhakar to file the defamation case. If he does, I will release all the proof
> Kempanna, State Contractors' Association chief

Health Minister Dr K Sudhakar had alleged that Kempanna was making false accusations regarding health department works in his constituency and he would file a defamation case. "I am still waiting for Sudhakar to file the defamation case. If he does, I will release all the proof," Kempanna said.

DKS, SIDDU DISCUSS 2023 POLL STRATEGY WITH RAHUL

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

SENIOR Congress leader and Wayanad MP Rahul Gandhi on Tuesday evening held a meeting with the state Congress president DK Shivakumar and Opposition Leader Siddaramaiah to discuss the party's strategy for the 2023 assembly polls.

Rahul Gandhi, KC Venugopal, Randeep Singh Surjewala, Shivakumar and Siddaramaiah had a detailed discussions on the party's election strategy and a presentation was also made during the meeting, sources said. Apart from highlighting the failures of the BJP government in the state and at the Centre, the focus will be on mobilizing party workers, and emphasise on ensuring the unity among party leaders on various levels, the sources added.

After the party's Chintan Shibira in Udaipur, Rajasthan the state Congress unit is holding brainstorming sessions at district level and also planning to take out padayatras in districts from August 9 to 15 to expose the BJP government's failures. "Surveys by all three parties are favouring the Congress, and we need to maintain the same momentum and avoid differences among leaders," sources said.

The party sources scotched speculations that Rahul Gandhi had called Shivakumar and Siddramaiah for a meeting to stamp out differences between the two leaders. "There are no differences between the two leaders. All issues have been discussed, and resolved earlier and now everyone is working as one strong unit," sources said. The party is ready to face the assembly elections anytime, but the government is not ready to hold the Zilla Panchayat and Taluk Panchayat elections fearing its weaknesses, said a Congress leader.

"Along with KC Venugopal and Randeep Surjewala met senior leaders from Karnataka Congress, Siddaramaiah & DK Shivakumar. We had fruitful discussions on the party's preparations, campaigns and strategy for the forthcoming assembly elections in Karnataka," said Rahul Gandhi on Facebook.

B'luru to host state agri ministers' meet

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

FOR the first time, the Union government is organising a meeting of agriculture ministers of all states in Bengaluru on July 14 and 15. As many as 30 state agriculture ministers along with Union Agriculture Ministers Narendra Singh Tomar and Shobha kharandlaje will take part in the two-day meeting that will focus on initiatives to double farmers' income and exchange best practices among states.

The Union Ministry for Agriculture and Farmers' Welfare is organising the event, which will also witness a series of discussions on various issues related to farming.

State Agriculture Minister BC Patil told The New Indian Express that there was a debate on holding the meet either in Karnataka or Rajasthan, and finally the ministry chose Karnataka as the state has come out with many novel initiatives, including the Vidyanidhi scheme for farmers' children and more.

Patil said they are also focusing on doubling farmers' income, which has been given priority by both the Union and the state governments. "In fact in Karnataka, the government has set up a directorate that focuses only on increasing the farmers' income. There are best practices in other states too and they will be explained during the meeting. We can exchange ideas that will benefit the farming sector at large," he added.

Agriculture Department sources said that the budget from the Union government for agriculture has increased five to six times in the last eight years. The state government too has increased the budget allocation. "At the meeting, Union Ministers will review implementation of various Central schemes related to agriculture and farmers," the sources said.

In March this year, Union Jal Shakti Minister Gajendra Singh Shekawat had conducted a review meeting with all water resources ministers and officials in Bengaluru.

When not CM, BSY spends time travelling around the world

AMID the hectic political schedule, former CM BS Yediyurappa is on travelling mode. After he resigned from the top job, he is on a foreign trip spree and in the last 10 months, he has been to at least four countries including European nations. At present, he is travelling with his family to one of those nations.

Yediyurappa, who resigned from the CM's post in July 2021, has been on foreign trips whenever he gets time out of his schedule.

In 1972, he started his political career from Shikaripura Town Municipality. "He has been in politics for over half a century. All these years he has covered the length and breath of Karnataka to bolster the party and then as the CM. Now to strengthen party base, his travelling is limited to Karnataka. Now that he has time, he is touring with his family and spending time with them," said a senior BJP leader on condition of anonymity.

In 2011 when he stepped down as CM, he had gone to Mauritius with his family.

In the last few months, he travelled to a few countries including the Maldives and UAE. He had left for the Maldives in August just a couple of weeks after he had resigned. Meanwhile, he travelled to the UAE twice when he was invited by the Kannada Association. He had skipped BJP's executive meeting held in Karnataka.

Now, Yediyurappa with his entire family comprising his son BY Vijayendra, daughters-in-law, daughters, sons-in-law grandchildren and others is travelling, and left Bengaluru soon after PM Narendra Modi departed. He will return by July 1.

Sources said the trip to Europe was long pending. "It was his desire to visit Basaveshwara statue in London". He will tour the UK and Germany.

'Avg consumer to pay ₹40 more for 200 units'

ACCORDING to the order, consumers in Bescom limits for the fourth quarter will have to pay an adjustment of 31p per unit, in Mangalore Electricity Supply Company (Mescom) limits 21p/unit, Chamundeshwari Electricity Supply Corporation (CESC) 19p, Hubli Electricity Supply Company (Hescom) 27p and Gulbarga Electricity Supply Company (Gescom) 26p/unit.

"An average consumer using 200 units will have to pay Rs 40 more in the monthly bill," said an energy department official.

The order also stated that charges are also applicable to consumers in Mangaluru SEZ and the FAC on Hescoms are also applicable to consumers of Hukeri RECS and Aequs SEZ, for the same period.

A senior energy department official told TNIE: "Revisions and adjustments in bills is a normal quarterly affair. The consumers do not realise it because it was marginal. But now because of higher price hike and due to political reasons it is being criticised. The hike is because coal procurement costs and other power purchase costs have increased. So there is no other option but to pass it on to consumers."

The official added the adjustment needs to be done.

PURSE ON FIRE

Oppn attacks govt over power tariff hike

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

OPPOSITION parties on Tuesday launched a scathing attack against the state government for increasing the power tariff.

Congress Legislature Party leader Siddaramaiah said, "BJP is trying to rip off the common man. The tariff hike is coming at a time when people are bearing the brunt of inflation and fuel price hike. This is the price people have to pay for BJP's inefficiency. Power tariffs were hiked in April and it has not even been three months. This hike spree will burden the common man. Incomes of many families are going down because of employment issues, while prices of essentials are going up. I urge the government to roll back the hike."

JDS senior leader HD Kumaraswamy said, "Karnataka polls are months away, yet the prices are galloping northwards. Is the government planning to bring down the tariffs during the polls to benefit from the goodwill? Is it part of a new strategy of price adjustment?" He said BJP serves the interests of the rich and not poor. In a series of tweets, he said, "We have received excellent rain in the state and consequently all the reservoirs are full. Power generation is also good. The government itself is saying that there is surplus power. Yet there is a price hike. What can be the motive behind this?"

He said customers who consume just 100 units per month will have to pay higher bills. "Should the poor and middle class rot in the dark without power? Is this what it means to give a new momentum to the entire nation through the Gati Shakti scheme? People are aware of the inefficiency of the energy department and its inability to prevent power thefts and losses in transmission and distribution. This is an attempt to impose that burden on the people and further exploit the people who have already been looted due to the hike in petrol and diesel prices."

He said the government that does not provide quality, regular electricity to rural areas has no moral right to hike power tariff. If it is increased, he will hit the streets and start a people's movement against price hike, he added.

More quakes will occur in state, but no need to worry: Experts

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

IN the wake of recent earthquakes in different parts of the state, experts have cautioned that the Deccan Plateau will experience more such temblors, but of much less intensity causing no damage.

Though the Deccan Plateau is considered a safe zone, the region too has experienced earthquakes. They pointed out that over the years and also in the recent past, Mandya and Maddur have been recording seismic activities. A stone inscription at Billanakote Hills near Nelamangala states that there was an earthquake in the region on July 15, 1507.

Kusala Rajendran, a retired professor of seismology, Centre for Earth Sciences, IISc, said every part of the world is prone to quakes, but for it to occur, there has to be a fault in the tectonic plates. "The occurrence is high in a highly urbanised environment and quarry sites where there is excessive infiltration. The recent local tremors have no connection with the massive quake in Afghanistan last week. Also, these quakes will not become bigger ones," he added.

When there is a stress on the Earth's surface and water seeps it changing the plates, the stress is released in the form of quakes.

Former director, Karnataka State Disaster Management Centre, VS Prakash said fault lines are the weak zones. "Kodagu experienced a quake in 2007. Kalaburgi and Vijayapura too recorded quakes, but instances have come down now. In Chincholi, temporary sheds have been put up as the area has been experiencing quakes. It has been noticed that the region experiences tremors whenever the dam fills up and this is because the reservoir sits on the fault line," he added.

The destructive earthquakes in Latur and Koyna show that the Deccan Plateau too is susceptible, he said.

With rising seismic activities, researchers said a database should be created for a better understanding. Prof P Anbazhagan, Assistant Professor, Department of Civil Engineering, IISc said records of these occurrences should be collected and analysed.

MILD TREMORS FELT IN PARTS OF KODAGU DIST

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Madikeri

MILD tremors were felt in some parts of Kodagu district on Tuesday morning and evening. Tremors were felt across Karike, Cheyyandane, Ballamavati, Vanachal, Peraje, Heravanadu, Yavakapadi - all in Madikeri taluk around 7.45 am. Thora in Virajpet taluk also witnessed mild tremors.

Between 4.30 pm and 4.40 pm, a few residents of Karike and Peraje reported they experienced tremors. Residents said they heard a loud sound from under the earth followed by tremors. "I was sitting on a rock at a rubber estate and it felt as if the rock had sunk into the earth a few inches," said Sudha, a resident of Chembu village on the Kodagu-Dakshina Kannada border.

Karnataka State Natural Disaster Management Committee (KSNDC) release said an earthquake of 3.0 magnitude epicentered 5.2 km northwest of Chembu village in Madikeri taluk was recorded. Tremors were felt in several places within a radius of 40 km to 50 km from the epicentre. "We cannot determine the nature of the quake without a survey. The soil might have lost its bonding capacity due to rainfall," a scientist of the KSNDMC said.

Pinarayi, Oppn spar over gold smuggling case

Opposition leader seeks CBI investigation

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ T'Puram

THE first-ever discussion over the gold smuggling row and allegations against Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan in the Assembly turned into an open political tussle between the ruling Left and Opposition UDF. While the Opposition sought to create an impression that the government was evading questions, Pinarayi lashed out, accusing the UDF of toeing the Sangh Parivar's agenda.

Opposition Leader VD Satheesan strongly pitched a demand for handing over the investigation to the CBI. Though the Assembly, rejected the adjournment motion amid Opposition uproar, the UDF was able to politically corner the government. In his almost one-hour long response in the House, the CM cleverly evaded all key questions raised by the Opposition into the smuggling row and Swapana Suresh's allegations against him.

Pinarayi, however lost his cool, while referring to Mathew Kuzhalnadan's allegation against his daughter. Pinarayi retorted that the Opposition legislators were trying to raise baseless allegations to help the BJP which had failed to make it to the Kerala Assembly. Opposition Leader V D Satheesan asked why the CM and the government did not resort to lawful remedies on Swapna's allegations and instead took illegal steps.

"Out of fear, they made illegal moves and that gave credence to Swapna's allegations. A complaint could have been filed for lodging a bogus case. Or a defamation case could have been filed. But no such lawful remedies were taken and instead they resorted to unlawful measures," he alleged.

"As in the solar case where the probe against former CM Oommen Chandy was handed over to the CBI, the probe on Swapna's complaints should be investigated by the CBI," Satheesan demanded.

The CM put up a defence alleging that the BJP-UDF nexus was at play to discredit the LDF government. "The woman who raised the allegation was given all the facilities by the Sangh Parivar. They gave her a job, car, boarding, security, salary and a lawyer. They gave her the letterhead in which she wrote a complaint to the PM," he said.

REMEMBER! GOOD ROADS DON'T MEAN SAFE ROADS

BOSKY KHANNA @ Bengaluru

THE recent death of a 27-year-old techie in a road accident on Bengaluru-Mangaluru highway in Tumakuru district has once again raised several questions on safety of motorists on our highways.

Experts from Indian Road Congress (IRC) and National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) opine that motorists must follow all prescribed norms while driving. They also feel that there is now a need to have more artificial intelligence cameras installed in multiple places along highways to penalise those over speeding.

"Usually motorists tend to slow down when they see a manual traffic interceptor vehicle and cruise through when the road is good. It is at these zones where most accidents occur. So, artificial intelligence cameras are the need of the hour," an IRC official said.

While the speed limit on highways worldwide is 120 kmph, in India, the norm still prescribed is 80-100 kmph and the highways are designed for this speed. "But commuters ride at 160 kmph. It is the thrill which is the problem. So apart from awareness, traffic police and local police personnel should also be more alert and keep a tab on speed violations," the official added.

A senior NHAI official said, "As a norm, it is our job to provide good roads. But that does not mean people should overspeed. The new vehicles are designed and marketed in such a way that vehicles' speed can be increased from 0-100 kmph in 5-8 seconds. Also many real estate projects advertise stating 'reach airport in 80 minutes' or 'reach Mysuru from Bengaluru in 90 min'. But no one talks about the speed they will be riding. Vehicle companies should also think about their social responsibilities."

The NHAI official added that they cannot put speed breakers as it is not allowed on NHs. Also rubble strips are of no use when vehicles are zooming at 120 kmph. The speed breakers on NHs are put up by local administrations and residents near schools, hospitals and residential areas. "Accidents have also been noted on these stretches and NHAI cannot be blamed for it," the official added.

DG&IGP Praveen Sood told TNIE, "Good roads do not mean safe roads. Over speeding is a big menace on highways. We all want good roads... but when roads are improved, the driver behaviour does not improve resulting in accidents. Good roads are not a licence for overspeeding and people should understand this."

16 'ILLEGAL' RESORTS SEALED IN HAMPI

KIRAN BALANNANAVAR
@ Hosapete

IN a major crackdown, the Vijayanagara district administration has sealed 16 resorts around Hampi saying they were running illegally. Citing rules and recommendations from the Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) and UNESCO, the administration issued an order in this regard last week.

But this has not gone well with the resort operators who are calling it an anti-tourism act by the administration.

The order was issued by Hampi World Heritage Area Management Authority (HWHAMA). It may be recalled that in 2021, about 40 resorts that were operating on Virupapur Gaddi (island) in Anegundi of Koppal were shut down.

Speaking to The New Indian Express, HWHAMA Commissioner Siddarameshwara said the resorts which have been sealed were running without any legal permission. "The permission from the authority is a must as it's a UNESCO protected area. Any kind of construction within a radius of 20 km is banned as per the rules," he said.

After shutting down the island resorts last year, the administration had promised to find a suitable alternative site where resorts can be built, but no development has taken place in this regard, say resort owners. "Tourism minister Anand Singh is aware of the issue and he had asked the administration to find the alternative site soon, but nothing has been done," a resort owner said.

Another resort operator from Anegundi pointed out that tourists like to stay close to Hampi and business had just started to pick up after a two-year pandemic period. "There are no illegalities and many resorts have temporary structures to cater to the needs of tourists. If the tourism facilities are removed, how will tourism improve or benefit the locals?" he asked.

NITK professor gets patent for bacterial cement mortar brick

ENS @ Mangaluru

A faculty member of National Institute of Technology Karnataka (NITK), Surathkal has received an Indian Patent for producing cement mortar brick with inclusion of bacteria in combination, which claims to be superior than the conventional bricks in terms of strength, life of structure and to possess a 'self-healing' property.

The invention is of Dr T Palanisamy, Assistant Professor in the Department of Civil Engineering, NITK and his research paper is titled 'Microbialcreat Composite'. A release from NITK said the patent was filed in 2014and the same was received in June, 2022. According to Dr Palanisamy, microbialcreat composite is a new-age material with the property of self-healing upon cracking. This action is by the precipitation of lime (calcium carbonate) by the non-pathogenic bacteria used in the composite, upon coming into contact with air and water through the crack. The precipitated lime will cover the crack, thereby improving the stability of the surface.

The non-pathogenic bacteria of genus Enterobacter, Enterococcus and Serratia and its growth solution are the part of this invented composite along with sand and cement. This invention is not limited to this specific system but using the same technique, development of bio cement and bio concrete is feasible, towards which a research group under the faculty is working on.

Guntur chilli farmers in upbeat mood as prices get red hot

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Guntur

THE biggest chilli market in Asia in Guntur is doing brisk business after it reopened on June 13. The yard has been receiving 50,000-70,000 bags of chilli every day for the past couple of weeks owing to the high demand.

The prices of all varieties of the fruit have been skyrocketing ever since. The '341 deluxe' variety is expensive by ₹6,000-₹ 7,000 per quintal, which the prices of other varieties too have witnessed a spike of ₹2,000 to ₹4,000 per quintal.

Byadigi 5531/668 is now being sold for ₹24,000 per quintal from ₹20,000 earlier.

On the increasing popularity of 341 deluxe, Madhu Babu, a trader, said the variety has a rich red colour and hot flavour, and is predominantly grown in the erstwhile Guntur and Prakasam districts in Andhra Pradesh, and Khammam in Telangana. "Fertile soil and the presence of a mirchi yard nearby led to the variety gaining popularity worldwide," he said and added that the recent hikes in chilli prices were unusual.

Due to pest infestation, the crop quality was affected in most of the areas. "So buyers are rushing to buy the best available quality for pepper, and are ready to pay high prices to the farmers even before the season," he explained.

During the mirchi season, farmers who managed to get a good yield sold their harvest even before the holidays as the prices were profitable to them, unlike in the past two years during the Covid waves.

Ramana Babu, a mirchi farmer from Guntur said, "Though I tried to sell my produce before the holidays, which was usually the norm, due to various reasons I couldn't and shifted them to a nearby cold storage. Now I am getting good offers for the produce as the prices have inflated like never before."

It is estimated that about 50 lakh bags of mirchi is presently stored in the cold storages, which will maintain the pace of the business for the next few months.

TEESTA ARREST KEEPS THE GODHRA POT BOILING

If there was any chance for closure after the Supreme Court rubbished the possibility of a larger conspiracy in the 2002 post-Godhra riots, it went out of the window after the Gujarat Police launched a crackdown. It arrested activist Teesta Setalvad and former DGP R B Sreekumar besides seeking to prosecute former IPS officer Sanjeev Bhatt following the court's observation that people with ulterior motives had sought to keep the pot boiling, and suggesting they be put on the dock. The basic question before the court was whether Narendra Modi as the then chief minister—at a meeting of top officials on the day the Sabarmati Express was torched killing 59 kar sevaks—issued a directive to let Hindus have a free hand to vent their anger against Muslims in the state. Bhatt alleged that Modi did, claiming he was present at the meeting, but an SIT that was tasked by the SC to probe the case, found forensic evidence to establish that he was elsewhere at the time of the meeting. Bhatt's claim was hyperventilated by others to build a false case against Modi, the SIT surmised. The court said failure to maintain law and order for a brief period need not be seen as part of a plot at the highest level to defeat the constitutional machinery. It upheld the SIT's conclusion that there was no larger conspiracy behind the Gulbarg Society riots.

That the communal violence that followed after the Godhra carnage tore up the heart of Gujarat and left a deep scar on the nation's psyche is undeniable. It was a blot on humanity and on Modi's career, as it happened under his watch as CM. But to impute motives to the way he managed the situation without conclusive proof is not done. Modi managed to survive in power, fighting external pressures and intra-party attempts to sack him, and became a Hindutva icon.

Back to the present, had the BJP not exercised the option of going after Setalvad and others, it would have possibly helped the process of healing and changed the discourse. For, as Mahatma Gandhi said, an eye for an eye will make the whole world blind.

TOWARDS BETTER MENTAL HEALTH INFRA

Two actors—both popular in their work spheres—ended their lives last week, sending the film fraternity in Odisha into mourning. Before the shock of television artist Rashmirekha Ojha's death could sink in, the alleged suicide by versatile actor Raimohan Parida hit the industry like a ton of bricks. The Kolkata film industry recently passed through a similar crisis when three actors allegedly died by suicide within days of one another, while entertainment fraternities in others states have had their share of such tragedies, the most sensational being actor Sushant Singh Rajput's death that catapulted the whole issue into the spotlight.

Fairly untouched hitherto, the sudden uptick in suicides has not only rocked the Odia film industry but also flagged the critical issue of mental health. The entertainment and glamour business can be a high-pressure one. That Covid has not been kind is an understatement of sorts. But it is just not about one factor since the deluge of social, emotional, financial and existential uncertainty the pandemic has brought about has left every section of society grappling with its enormity. India has found itself wanting, thanks to the crippling shortage of trained manpower and support infrastructure. There is a lack of an institutional set-up for counselling and preventive therapy. For Odisha, the situation is equally alarming in the face of a 21% rise in the incidence of suicide in one year, as per the NCRB 2020 report. When Covid hit, districts had to seek the support of non-profits for psycho-social counselling of patients with very little institutional help in existence. The SCB Medical College and Hospital, the state's biggest public sector health facility, has just eight seats in the clinical psychology department, pointing to the problem at hand. But this is true for the entire country as well. One set of data says India has just 0.3 mental health professionals per one lakh population. It has just about 9,000 practicing psychiatrists and barely 1,000 clinical psychologists. The Ministry of Health and Family Welfare recently admitted in Lok Sabha about not maintaining any centralised data about the number of mental health professionals in India. Greater awareness to identify mental health issues at the family level is the need of the hour. Clearly, there is an urgent need to acknowledge the presence of the elephant in the room.

The need of the hour is greater onboarding of more MSME sellers, public sector enterprises and state governments on the TReDS platform

MSME FINANCING CHALLENGES STILL REMAIN

TULSI JAYAKUMAR

Professor, Economics, Bhavan's SPJIMR

SOUMYADIP SINHA

Of the challenges faced by Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs), the challenge of the 'financing gap' pinches the most. This challenge, which represents a 'capital gap' for MSMEs to pursue growth strategies, has wide ramifications for the nation's development since MSMEs contribute to 30% of India's GDP, besides their valuable contribution to employment and exports. The size of the credit gap for developing country SMEs, as estimated by the International Finance Corporation (IFC), was approximately $5 trillion—1.3 times the level of current MSME lending. Women-owned MSMEs were fewer and accounted for more than 32% of the gap.

Most SMEs and entrepreneurs look towards traditional bank finance as external sources of credit to plug their financing needs. Yet the risk-return profile of these enterprises is ill-suited for such finance, especially during specific stages in their life cycle when there is a lack of credit history and proven track records, and a greater reliance on intangibles (which can't be collateralised) as part of their business models. The need to show robust business plans and good sales turnover may also contribute to the challenges in obtaining credit through the traditional routes.

The Reserve Bank of India's report on Trend and Progress of Banking in India 2021 (p. 87) notes that the total number of MSME accounts with all Indian Scheduled Commercial Banks (SCBs) in 2020–21 was a mere ₹420.19 lakh, with the amount of credit flow outstanding to such MSMEs being ₹17,83,924.8 crore. Such data juxtaposed with the overall credit by SCBs in India in March 2021 suggests that MSMEs accounted for a mere 14% of the overall number of loan accounts with Indian SCBs in 2020–21 (at 29.9 crore accounts) and a mere 16% of the overall amount of credit flow outstanding of ₹1,09,12,317 crore. Clearly, banks can't be relied upon to help MSMEs act as the change agents for India's development.

The Trade Receivables Discounting System (TReDS) was an innovative alternative financing method launched by the Reserve Bank of India in 2017, with a view to facilitate financial inclusion of the Indian MSME sector. The TReDS is an electronic platform for financing/discounting trade receivables of MSMEs, both in the form of invoices and bills of exchange, drawn on large corporates, Public Sector Units, and government departments. With banks and Non-Banking Financial Companies (NBFCs) undertaking the financing through a competitive invoice auctioning mechanism, MSMEs can avail short-term credit at competitive interest rates with multiple financiers, which provides them a bargaining power hitherto unimagined. The process flow and the settlement process have been designed to ensure speedy settlements between financiers and MSMEs for accepted bids on a T+2 basis.

The government has mandated that all companies with a turnover of ₹500 crore and above go onboard the TReDS platform. The Government's e-Marketplace (GeM) is also automatically linked to TReDS, helping MSMEs collect payments due for procurements made by the government.

The TReDS has been partially successful in achieving its goal of financial inclusion by providing an alternative to the difficult bank financing route. There has been a growth in the financing of trade receivables of MSMEs through the TReDS platform. Thus, during 2020–21, a total of 8,61,560 invoices amounting to ₹19,669.84 crore were uploaded. Of these, 7,86,555 invoices (91.3% of those uploaded) were financed, with the amount financed being 86.8% of the invoices uploaded (amounting to ₹17,080.14 crore). In 2020–21, there was a growth in the invoices uploaded and financed through the platform by more than 62%—a testament to the success of the innovative financing mechanism.

> Most SMEs and entrepreneurs look towards traditional bank finance as external sources of credit to plug their financing needs. Yet the risk-return profile of these enterprises is ill-suited for such finance

However, what is needed is greater onboarding of more MSME sellers, public sector enterprises as well as state governments on the TReDS. Of the three TReDS platforms authorised by the RBI to operate, Receivables Exchange of India (RXIL), in its Annual Report for 2021, reported a total of 5,300 MSME sellers registering on the platform. RXIL was the largest TReDS platform in terms of volume of business, crossing ₹10,000 crore in March 2021. M1xchange, on its website, claims that it has helped more than 9,800 MSMEs, mainly from Tier 2 and Tier 3 cities. With the number of MSMEs in India in March 2022 being more than 79.27 lakh, it is clear that TReDS has to be more widely adopted by MSME sellers.

The situation is equally uninspiring from the corporate and PSU buyers' end. According to the information available from the MSME ministry, only 35.2% of the 4,714 large companies with a ₹500 crore turnover each (as identified by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs in April 2021) were registered on TReDS as of April 2022. It would appear that even such registration was on account of fulfilling compliance norms, since most companies had not actually started transactions. The CPSEs trading on TReDS is also not 100%. As of 2020, only 175 of the Public Sector Enterprises were on TReDS.

MSME financing will need to be paid greater attention to. The RBI is well advised to make all MSME buyers and sellers mandatorily participate in TReDS. This will resolve, to a large extent, the long-standing MSME financing woes.

A WALL IN TN THAT SPEAKS A FORGOTTEN STORY

MADHUSUDHANAN KALAICHELVAN

Architect and conservationist interested in Indian heritage and culture

Shaivism and Vaishnavism, the two most popular faith systems in India, have a well-documented and long-standing history. Deep-rooted in society, Vedic deities Siva and Vishnu are the most popular Gods with individual temples in almost every village. Traditional town-planning manuals, especially those used in South India, reserved space for temples for the deities and designed settlements around them. Strict affiliation to these individual faith systems sometimes led to arguments over superiority. Some were academic debates recorded in books. On occasions, the differences sparked off tussles, disturbing harmony.

One well-documented case of faith-based differences that led to political intervention and disruption of law and order occurred in Tirumeyyam, a village near Pudukottai in Tamil Nadu. This region of Tamil Nadu is full of historic monuments dating to the 7th–9th century CE. A grand cave temple was excavated around the 8th–9th century by the Mutharaiyar chieftains in Tirumeyyam. The complex housed a shrine each for Siva and Vishnu. There was a shrine for Siva and an extension led to a colossal depiction of a reclining pose (Anantasayana) of Vishnu. The architects who planned the initial blueprint for this shrine perhaps did not anticipate the repercussions nearly five centuries later.

Though the exact origin of the dispute is lost in the pages of history, the archives give us a rough idea of the background. In the middle of the 13th century CE, the 7th year of the rule of Maravarman Sundara Pandya II (1245 CE), this region was ruled by the Hoysala kings. Commissioned by Appanna Dandanayaka, the brother-in-law of Ravidevan Dandanayaka, the army general of Vira Someshwara, several important dignitaries met to draft a permanent solution. The congress included the administrative heads of the 'nadu', towns and villages, religious heads, local chieftains, priests initiated in the Saiva agama, representatives from the Pandya country (the initial rulers of this region), Srivaishnavas, Saivites of Tirumeyyam, religious leaders from Piranmalai temple, a certain Narayana Srikumara Bhattan of Barathwaja gothram, and the guardians of the group of 18 settlements of this region.

The points of conflict related to the temple's ownership and authority over tax collection. The arguments resulted in a loss of finances, even affecting the conduct of daily rituals. The meeting primarily addressed this issue and came up with a solution. The land dues were to be split in a 2:3 ratio between the Siva and Vishnu temples. On mutual acceptance, a portion of the disputed land was to be exchanged for land in another part of the same region. Canals and water bodies owned by the temple were split evenly between the two parties. A wall was to bifurcate the temple campus that housed the two shrines. Stones marked the boundary line and a wall, almost a foot in width, was built to specifications. The expense of this construction was to be borne by the parties in the same ratio, 2:3. The trees in the path of this wall were to be cut down. The respective boundaries were to be demarcated by erecting stone slabs with trishula and chakra symbols respectively. The campus on the east of the wall became a separate Vishnu temple and to the west was Siva's. The agreement included a clause that if future desilting of tanks or excavation of the temple campus yielded buried murtis of Gods and Goddesses, they should be handed over to the denomination to which they belong.

> The Pudukottai region of Tamil Nadu is full of historic monuments dating to the 7th–9th century CE. A grand cave temple was excavated around the 8th–9th century by the Mutharaiyar chieftains in Tirumeyyam. The complex housed a shrine each for Siva and Vishnu. There was a shrine for Siva and an extension led to a colossal depiction of a reclining pose (Anantasayana) of Vishnu

The land outside the campus was also divided in the 2:3 ratio. So were the residences of the priests. While the denominations had their respective priests and assistants, the nagaswaram players were common to both the deities. So the committee suggested that the individual temples must henceforth arrange for their musicians separately. Agricultural land, trees, gardens, house sites and dry land outside Tirumeyyam were to be equally shared by the two parties. To record this lengthy agreement, a few old inscriptions in grantha script (including one on classical music) were reformatted by wiping out the original etchings. Inscriptions about the properties of the Siva temple on the walls of the Vishnu temple were erased and rewritten on the walls of the former.

The resolution was deemed critical for the welfare of the settlement and hence, severe punishments were designed for those violating its provisions. Offenders were to be declared traitors to the king and country and deemed disloyal to their mothers. They were to pay penalties. Some crimes could threaten their lives too. However, four years later, an issue concerning the land gifted to meet the expense of the musicians employed by the Siva temple cropped up. A certain Tiruvengada Nambi, an arbitrator, was called to resolve the issue. This time there were no long arguments or fact-checking done to deliver justice. The arbitrator instead picked a token out of two that bore the respective symbols from the hands of Sri Krishna in the temple. This was considered a divine intervention and it favoured the Saivites of Tirumeyyam.

As we walk past these temples today, we are moved by their grandeur and artistic representation. These forgotten yet interesting stories embellish our experiences. We are familiar with some of these conflicts, and their resolutions, even today.

Zubair's sudden arrest

This is with reference to Alt News' Zubair arrested for 'derogatory' post (June 28). It is baffling how Mohammed Zubair's tweet from four years ago was suddenly discovered, with Delhi police arresting him shortly after. It is hard to believe that this tweet escaped the eyes of ubiquitous, self-styled custodians of religions. Incidentally, Zubair is the journalist who posted on social media a video of now-suspended BJP spokesperson Nupur Sharma making derogatory comments against a certain religion.

US must tame its guns

This is with reference to Man shoots waitress over mayo (June 28). This is especially important considering the context in US society—gun culture. The international community has been quite wary in the recent past when it comes to the US government's liberal view of its citizens' possessing guns. It is tragic that the US Supreme Court has struck down a law that would restrict rights around carrying guns. The prevailing situation makes it imperative to reconsider the order in order to protect citizens.

Safety net for Agniveers

This is with reference to Secure the future of retiring Agniveers (June 28). One could not agree more with the points made in this editorial. There should be a concrete plan for post-service recruitment of Agniveers. This will allow Agniveers to give their best while in service instead of worrying about their stability and employment in the future. It is also imperative to develop a post-Agnipath service saving and investing scheme so that Agniveers can make the most of their earnings.

Rebels with a cause

It is only just and fair that the Supreme Court has given 'rebel' Shiv Sena legislators time till July 12 to respond to the disqualification notice issued to them. Meanwhile, it will be interesting to see if the Maharashtra Assembly is convened before July 12 to test the majority of the Maha Vikas Aghadi government. As per reports, the faction led by Eknath Shinde is commanding the loyalty of not less than 40 Shiv Sena MLAs. If it is so, is it fair to call the MLAs belonging to the Shinde faction 'rebels'?

C G Kuriakose, Kothamangalam

Combat political poaching

The swift political developments in Maharashtra once again confirm that there is a lacuna in the anti-defection law in its present form. There are many instances in the past where elected governments were destabilised by power-hungry legislators. Even the present BJP government in Karnataka has come to power due to defections. MLAs change their party affiliations according to their will and weaken governments. There is a need to look at the anti-defection law and make it more stringent so that elected governments complete their full term and to avoid frequent by-elections.

Towards friendship

This is with reference to India & Asean: overcoming perceptions (June 28). The US and Asean nations are of importance to India to combat China. India's withdrawal from RCEP has created mistrust among the latter. India must nurture ties with Asean nations.

Both the leaders talked about India-UAE Comprehensive Strategic Partnership. During a virtual Summit in February this year, India and UAE signed the Comprehensive Economic Partnership Agreement (CEPA), which came into force in May.

"CEPA is expected to further boost trade and investment between both countries. Bilateral trade between India and UAE in 2021-22 was $72 billion. UAE is India's third largest trade partner and second largest export destination. FDI in India by the UAE has increased over the past few years and is at present over $12 billion," according to the Ministry of External Affairs.

This agreement aims to take the bilateral trade to over $100 billion by 2030.

Raut gets fresh ED summons to face probe

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

THE Enforcement Directorate has issued fresh summons to Shiv Sena lawmaker Sanjay Raut asking him to join its probe on July 1 in a money laundering case linked to alleged irregularities in the re-development of a Mumbai 'chawl'. He was issued the first summons for Tuesday but he sought more time citing official commitments and a meeting he was supposed to attend at Alibaug in Raigad district of the state.

His lawyers met Enforcement Directorate officials in Mumbai on Tuesday and sought about two weeks' time for his appearance, but the agency gave him relief only until this month-end.

Raut also held a press conference in the morning and said he "will go" to the ED the moment he gets free. "I am a lawmaker. I know the law. Even if the law implementing agencies are working in the wrong way, I am a law-abiding person," he said. On Monday, when Raut was asked to appear before the agency officials, he dared them to arrest him. "I have just learned that I am summoned by the ED. Good! There are big political developments in Maharashtra...," Raut said on social media.

He is fronting the battle for the survival of the Uddhav Thackeray government. "We, Balasaheb's Shivsainiks, are fighting a big battle. This is a conspiracy to stop me. Even if you behead me, I won't take the Guwahati route. Arrest me! Jai Hind!" said Raut.

The federal financial investigating agency started a money laundering probe on the basis of an FIR registered by the Mumbai police economic offences wing in March 2018.

The case was filed against Guru Ashish Constructions Pvt Ltd, R. Kumar Wadhwan, S. Kumar Wadhwan, Pravin Raut, a former director of Guru Ashish Constructions, and others.

Covid spike: Cautious Centre asks 14 risk states to step up vigil

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

DELHI is among 14 states that are reporting a spike in Covid-19 cases on a weekly basis. The Union Health Ministry on Tuesday advised these states to continue to be alert and step up their vigil.

Along with a spike in the 19 cases, these states have shown a high positivity rate, reduced testing and below-average vaccination, the Ministry said.

Since June 1, many states, which have now expanded to 14, have been reporting a spike in Covid cases. The other states that were part of the virtual meet included Assam, Goa, Gujarat, Haryana, Meghalaya, Mizoram, Rajasthan, Uttar Pradesh, West Bengal, Delhi, Maharashtra, Kerala, Karnataka and Telangana.

In a virtual review meeting, Union Health Secretary Rajesh Bhushan advised them to monitor the epidemiological profile of admitted Covid-19 patients strictly and report the clinical manifestation to the ministry, rather than random or anecdotal reporting, a statement said.

"This will help to identify at an early stage any out-of-the-ordinary or different clinical presentation of the patients," the statement added.

Noting that the uptake in second and precaution doses in many states reporting the present surge was low, they were advised to rapidly accelerate the vaccination coverage, especially for the elderly population, and second dose among the 12-17 age group.

The ministry said there was no shortage of Covid-19 vaccines and that states should ensure that the vaccines that expire first are administered first to prevent any wastage.

In the meeting, the low level of Covid-19 testing was highlighted as also the drop in RTPCR share. Instead of a thin and broad testing spectrum, states were told to focus on strategic testing. It means keeping an audit of patients coming to fever clinics, patients with influenza-like illness (ILI) and those with severe acute respiratory infections (SARI).

Cops to bring Zubair to B'luru today

BALA CHAUHAN @ Bengaluru

ALT News co-founder Mohammed Zubair, who was arrested on Monday by the special cell, Delhi police, will be brought to Bengaluru on Wednesday. Speaking to The New Indian Express, Deputy Commissioner of Police, Intelligence, Fusion & Strategic Operations (IFSO) Special Cell of Delhi Police, KPS Malhotra said a police team will bring Zubair to Bengaluru on Wednesday to recover critical digital evidence like his mobile phone and laptop, which he had allegedly used for posting on Twitter. Zubair is a resident of Bengaluru.

He was arrested on June 27 on charges of allegedly hurting religious sentiments following a complaint by a social media user who referred to Zubair's tweet from 2018. The police have registered an FIR against Zubair in connection with the complaint under Sections 153-A (promoting enmity between different groups) and 295-A (malicious acts, intended to outrage religious feelings) of the Indian Penal Code (IPC).

Malhotra added that Zubair was evasive and not co-operating in the investigation. His phone has reportedly been formatted. After recovering the laptop, the police will try to access the hard disk memory to check the edited files which were allegedly posted by him.

The laptop will be sent for the forensic examinations at Central Forensic Science Laboratory, Rohini.

According to sources, Zubair had allegedly received Rs 50 lakh in the last three months in the bank account of his company.

BUT the prosecution contended that Zubair ought to be placed under police remand because his "intentional act of outraging religious emotions was on record." Zubair allegedly "used provocative tweets to offend religious emotions in an effort to achieve recognition," according to the police.

"His evasiveness formed the grounds for his arrest," said K P S Malhotra, Deputy Commissioner of Police.

The police claimed Zubair received ₹50 lakh in his bank account in the last three months, adding they were investigating the source of the funding. But another Alt News co-founder Pratik Sinha said, "Fact-check: Absolutely lies. Police is linking donations received by Alt News to Zubair. All the money that Alt News receives goes to the organisations bank and not any individuals."

Army, Navy complete study on Theatre Commands

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

THE biggest reform of reorganising the Indian Armed Forces into theater command is moving ahead with the studies commissioned to individual services reaching the advanced stages. The Indian Air Chief has confirmed "definite progress" in the process.

Sources in the defence establishment confirmed that the "the studies being done by the Army and the Navy are complete."

As reported in media, Air Chief Marshal VR Chaudhari on Sunday said, "The process of theaterisation of the Indian Armed forces is at a deliberation stage. There are a few issues which are being discussed and definite progress has been made in this aspect," he said. "Therefore, the joint structures that we may form shall be specific to our environment, adequately deliberated and war-gamed to clearly enunciate tasks and roles of each service," he said.

As reported earlier, one of the main differences that have protracted the finalisation of the process is the IAF's reluctance over distribution of resources. It has highlighted that of the 42 combat squadrons sanctioned, the IAF operates with just about 30.

Speaking on the issues Air Chief Marshal Chaudhari on Sunday said that the three services are on the "same page" on the issues of formulation of joint structures.

"The IAF remains fully committed to integration that brings about transformation and enhancement of the comprehensive national combat power," he said.

The Commands of the three services were entrusted with the responsibility of carrying out independent studies on the organisation and structures. Initial plan was to hold presentations in the months of February, March and April with the final presentation due in May had the things gone as per the plan.

While, in the case of the Army South Western Command and Central Command have carried out the study. Central Command of the Air Force and Eastern Command of the Navy have carried out the studies.

The theaterisation process was initiated by CDS General Rawat who was killed in an unfortunate accident in December 2021. This led to delay in the process.

The war fighting structure of the Armed Forces (Army, Air Force and Navy) is being reorganised into theatre commands with an aim to have the assets of all three forces under one commander responsible for all operations under his theatre.

Mumbai: 18 die, 13 hurt as building falls

More residents are feared to be trapped under debris

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

AT least 18 people died while 13 others, including a 17-year-old youth, were injured after a four-storey building collapsed at Kurla's Naik Nagar society in Mumbai late on Monday night.

According to Mumbai Fire Brigade officials, more residents are feared to be trapped under the debris. "The rescue operation is going on. We fear that about 10 residents may still be trapped under the debris. We are still removing the debris. This operation will continue for some more time," said a fire services official.

The deceased include 28-year-old Ajay Bhola, who was initially rescued and taken to the hospital on Tuesday morning, where he was declared brought dead. Early in the morning, a 30-year-old man whose identity is yet to be confirmed was declared dead by the hospital.

The incident happened when a wing of the residential building collapsed around midnight of Monday. As per government records, the building, which was constructed in 1973, had four wings. While the first three wings have five-storeys, the fourth one had four floors. In 2013, this building had carried out major renovations, including several additions and alterations. That repair work had apparently damaged and weakened the structure of the building. The Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation (BMC) had also issued a notice to them but the residents of this building had given an undertaking that if something happens with this building, they would be held responsible.

Ex-gratia aid, free treatment

Maharashtra Chief Minister Uddhav Thackeray announced `5 lakh financial assistance to the families of the deceased while the injured will be given free medical treatment by the government. The injured persons have been admitted to Rajawadi Hospital in Ghatkopar.

'Family head' Uddhav plays emotional card to call rebels back

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

AN embattled Maharashtra Chief Minister Uddhav Thackeray played emotional card on Tuesday and appealed to the rebel Shiv Sena MLAs camped in Guwahati to 'come back home', saying he was ready to talk to them. Uddhav, at the same time, alleged said that some of the MLAs were forcefully kept in Guwahati and were in touch with him.

"I am your party president and family head. So, I am ready to listen to your grievances. Please come back and meet me in person. We will surely come out with a solution if you come here," the Shiv Sena supremo said in his appeal. He added that the rebel MLAs' families were worried about them and wanted them to come back.

"Please do not get into the trap of wrong people. No one will give you the honour that the Shiv Sena has given," he further said.

Earlier, Uddhav's wife Rashmi Thackeray had spoken to the spouses and family members of the MLAs. She told them that the Sena was one family and if the rebels had any issues, "then as a family they should sit together and resolve these". She asked them to persuade their husbands to come back.

Sena sources also clarified that the CM was not going to resign and was prepared to fight a legal battle if a no-confidence motion was bought against his government.

The sources further claimed that the rebel camp was divided. The Eknath Shinde camp wanted merger with the BJP while retaining the splinter group's identity as Shiv Sena MLAs while the other group favoured meeting Uddhav and finding out a solution, said a person camped in Guwahati.

He added that most of the rebels no longer wanted to stay far away in Guwahati and were putting pressure on Shinde to find an amicable solution.

Shinde, however, denied anyone from the splinter group was in touch with Uddhav and said there was no possibility of a patch-up.

'Form SIT to look into conspiracy'

In a memorandum submitted to Surat police commissioner, the Gujarat Congress has demanded the formation of a Special Investigation Team to investigate the role of the hotel in the conspiracy of sheltering the Shiv Sena rebel MLAs.

Guj Cong wants probe for Surat hotel booking

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Ahmedabad

THE Congress in Gujarat wants a probe against the Surat hotel where the Maharashtra rebels stayed before flying to Guwahati. The party has sought an FIR against the hotel for sheltering the Shiv Sena rebels. "The conspiracy to overthrow our government in Maharashtra has been hatched in this hotel. Otherwise, how can so many MLAs reach the same hotel? The fact that they all came here together means the venue had already been decided and local BJP leaders were present to welcome them when they arrived at the hotel," said Surat city Congress president Hasmukh Desai. He also alleged that the MLAs were served liquor at the hotel and demanded probe into how they got alcohol.

Taking Balasaheb's Hindutva, Shiv Sena forward: Shinde

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Guwahati

SIX days after landing in Guwahati, Shiv Sena leader Eknath Shinde made his first appearance before the media on Tuesday, saying the rebel MLAs are abiding by Bal Thackeray's ideology. Shinde was on his way out of the five-star Radisson Blu hotel when he approached the journalists stationed outside the hotel's entrance. He told them that party spokesperson Deepak Kesarkar would keep updating them.

"Our spokesperson Kesarkar is regularly providing you information on our role and stand. We are taking Balasaheb Thackeray's ideals about Hindutva and the Shiv Sena forward. There is no confusion about it," Shinde said. "We will inform you when we decide on our next step."

Shinde also said something in Marathi for the convenience of Marathi journalists visiting from Maharashtra to cover the issue.

According to sources, Shinde and the rebel camp he is leading would leave for Mumbai on Thursday. Sources added that Shinde has denied reports that he would visit Delhi.

Cong, NCP with Sena through thick and thin

In 2019, when Ajit Pawar revolted against NCP chief Sharad Pawar Congress president Sonia Gandhi and Shiv Sena's Uddhav Thackeray firmly stood with Sharad Pawar. They were successful in disintegrating the beleaguered party and went on to forme the Maha Vikas Aghadi (MVA). Now, after 2.5 years, Sonia Gandhi has once again dialled Thackeray to express solidarity after a faction of Shiv Sena MLAs rebelled against the him. Besides, senior Pawar also reaffirmed support to Thackeray amid this political crisis.
Interestingly, the rebelling MLAs led by Shiv Sena Minister Eknath Shinde had demanded CM Uddhav to exit the 'unnatural' MVA and join forces with the BJP.

Pawar declares all-out support to Uddhav

NCP patriarch Sharad Pawar asked its people to prepare them mentally in order to sit in Opposition if the Maha Vikas Aghadi loses the floor test or is not able to rein in the rebelling Shiv Sena MLAs. Pawar is known for his maverick and spellbound moves in India's politics. Maharashtra chief minister Uddhav Thackeray after the revolt of his MLAs was prepared to resign but NCP chief pursued him, wanting him not to step down as there are many moves yet to be played. Since then, the political drama has taken a different turn and it is continuing. Amid the political turbulence set off by the Shiv Sena Minister Eknath Shinde's faction, Pawar had said that NCP will support Uddhav till the last minute.

BJP treads legal route, stays alert amid crisis

Leader of Opposition and BJP MLA Devendra Fadnavis made five visits to Delhi in the last seven days. Fadnavis is most probable chief minister if the BJP comes back to power in Maharashtra. He is purportedly the man behind the rebelling Shiv Sena faction which is holed up in Assam. However, the rebel MLAs' matter is in the Supreme Court and the developments in the state assembly are crucial. Therefore the BJP has been considering all possible legal recourses. The party does not want to repeat the 2019 circumstances where BJP's 80-hour government with Ajit Pawar was made to fall. Such a big fiasco is the last thing the BJP wants now prompting them to exercise caution.

PM's hand-picked gifts for G-7 leaders puts UP's artworks on global forum

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

BLACK pottery of Nizamabad, hand painted tea set from Bulandshahr, Gulabi Meenakari brooch and cufflink set from Varanasi and hand-embroidered Zari Zardozi box were just a few specialised items hand-picked by Prime Minister Narendra Modi as gift for G-7 leaders before departing for Germany.

These items, identified with Uttar Pradesh and made under 'One District One Product' scheme of the state government, were blended with the culture of the country whose leader received the gift.

The Gulabi Meenakari brooch and cufflinks were gifted to US President Joe Biden. The brooch, meant for First Lady Jill Biden, was a piece of pure silver moulded into a base form and with embossed design. It is a GI-tagged art form of Varanasi. Biden was gifted matching cufflinks.

Japan's PM Fumio Kishida was gifted the black pottery of Nizamabad, which is produced through a technique to bring out the black colour while the pottery is inside the oven.

A platinum painted tea set was gifted to British PM Boris Johnson. The crockery was outlined with platinum metal paint in honour of Queen Elizabeth on the platinum jubilee of her coronation this year.

French President Emmanuel Macron got a Zari Zardozi carrier box crafted in Lucknow with hand embroidery on khadi silk and satin tissue in the colours of French national flag. The box carried Attar Mitti – produced as a concoction of jasmine oil, attar shamama, attar gulab, exotic musk and garam masala in UP's Kannauj.

The Summit host, German Chancellor Olaf Scholz, received brassware of Moradabad while Italy's PM Mario Draghi was gifted a marble table top inlaid with semi-precious stones with gradients in their colour. The pietra dura has its origins in Rome.

Senegal President Macky Sall was gifted Moonj baskets and cotton durries in consonance with Senegal's tradition of hand-weaving passed down from mother to daughter. In acknowledgment of the common cultural heritage with Indonesia, Modi gifted a lacquerware Ram Durbar to its President Joko Widodo. The GI-tagged lacquerware art has its roots in Varanasi.

Demolition: HC gives day's time to govt to respond

The Allahabad High Court on Tuesday gave a day's time to the UP government and Prayagraj Development Authority (PDA) to file reply in response to a petition filed by wife and daughter of Javed Mohammad, the alleged mastermind of June 10 violence in Prayagraj, against the demolition of their house by the administration on June 12. The matter has been posted for hearing on June 30. ENS

Babu's bail plea hearing deferred

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Ranchi

THE Enforcement Directorate (ED) has sought time from a special PMLA court to file its reply against the bail plea of suspended IAS officer Pooja Singhal, who was held in a money laundering case. The next hearing is on July 4.

Singhal had filed a bail petition through her lawyer Biswajit Mukherjee before the special PMLA court of Prabhat Kumar Sharma on Monday. She has sought bail on health grounds, and also has challenged the judicial custody as illegal.

The ED, after an interrogation for over 15 hours, had arrested Singhal on May 11 in a case linked to alleged embezzlement of MGNREGA funds and other charges.

According to the information provided by ED, ₹1.43 crore more than the known sources of her income was recovered from the bank accounts of Singhal while she was posted as Deputy Commissioner in Khunti, Palamu and Chatra.

IT'S GUJ VS DELHI MODEL FOR ASSEMBLY POLLS

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @ Ahmedabad

SENSING that their fight in the Gujarat Assembly elections is likely to be with the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP), the BJP has sent a 17-member team, including former ministers and MLAs, to Delhi to monitor the development of the national capital. The team will return after inspecting Delhi but without meeting any AAP leader.

The AAP has been campaigning in Gujarat using the development of Delhi as a model. However, there seemed to be a lack of coordination between the BJP leaders of Delhi and Gujarat. During a press conference, when Gujarat Education Minister Jitu Vaghani was asked about the Delhi visit, he said, "The members of the Gujarat BJP have gone to Delhi to attend a workshop of the BJP media cell, not to visit schools or check the Delhi model." On the other hand, the Twitter account of the Delhi BJP tweeted a picture of the Gujarat delegation, and wrote, "The Gujarat delegation is welcome in Delhi to see Kejriwal's fake Delhi model."

> We have formed a team of 5 MLAs to welcome this team from Gujarat and show them the school and mohalla clinic. These 5 MLAs of AAP will visit Gujarat in a week to see the schools and hospitals there.
> Manish Sisodia, AAP

Meanwhile, on hearing about the Gujarat team's visit, Delhi Deputy Chief Minister Manish Sisodia tweeted, "We have formed a team of 5 MLAs to welcome this team from Gujarat and show them the school and mohalla clinic. These 5 MLAs of AAP will visit Gujarat in a week to see the schools and hospitals there. I am confident that the Gujarat government will welcome them in the same way."

The two parties have been at loggerheads for some time over the Delhi development model, with Sisodia also visiting a government school at Bhavnagar in Gujarat two months ago.

Soren's plea over appearance in court rejected

MUKESH RANJAN @ Ranchi

A Special MP/MLA Court in Ranchi on Tuesday rejected a petition filed by Chief Minister Hemant Soren seeking exemption from physical appearance in a case related to violation of the model code of conduct during the 2019 Lok Sabha polls.

A case was registered against Soren at Argora Police Station in Ranchi during the LS elections after he was spotted wearing his party's scarf with a symbol of bow and arrow printed over it while exercising his franchise at the polling booth. Soren was scheduled to appear before the Court on Tuesday, but now, the case will be heard on July 15.

Agnipath: Punjab to bring resolution in Assembly

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

PUNJAB Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann on Tuesday said the state government will soon bring a resolution in the Assembly against the Agnipath scheme.

"Agnipath is a whimsical and irrational move of the NDA government which will destroy the basic fabric of the Indian Army," Mann said while replying to a question raised by Leader of the Opposition Partap Singh Bajwa during zero hour.

He said this was another illogical move by the NDA government to ruin the future of the youth. No one other than the BJP leaders ever understood the merits of schemes like demonetisation, GST, the farm laws and now Agnipath, he said.

The CM said it was unfortunate and unbelievable that a person who will be serving the country at prime of his youth will not get any pension or other benefits for this service. This was a grave injustice to the youth of the country who want to serve their motherland and was not at all acceptable at any cost, he added.

The Punjab CM said the Agnipath scheme reflected the sorry state of affairs in the country as the party in power at the Centre was recklessly running its affairs without applying mind.

He said the state government was vehemently opposed to this "senseless move" and would bring a resolution in the Assembly. He solicited the support and cooperation of all the parties to "oppose this move with full might".

Moosewala song leaked, police register case

Chandigarh: Punjab Police has registered a case on a complaint by Sidhu Moosewala's father Balkaur Singh after the singer's song SYL was allegedly leaked by an unidentified person on WhatsApp on June 20. A case was registered by the police in Mansa on the complaint of Singh as the song was to be released officially on June 23. ENS

JK Govt orders probe into opening of schools to recruit political workers

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

THE Jammu and Kashmir government has ordered a probe into the alleged scam of opening of new primary schools by the past regimes in the Union Territory to recruit their own political workers.

The Directorate of School Education Kashmir in an order has directed all chief education officers (CEOs) of the Valley to conduct in-depth inquiry into the opening of new primary schools by the past regimes to recruit their own political workers.

The CEOs have been asked to submit their report to the Directorate of School Education within 10 days.

The CEOs have, in turn, sought necessary details and information from the Zonal Education Officers (ZEOs).

The order has come after the government ordered closure of private schools on government land. The order, which would have impacted about 2 lakh students across J&K, has been stayed by the the Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh High Court.

The Private Schools Association of Jammu and Kashmir (PSAJK) president G N Var termed the latest government order as "bizarre".

"The schools are established as per government rules and regulations. No hanky-panky is possible," he said.

Var said the emphasis in private schools is upon providing quality education to the students and no school is ready to compromise on it.

"How can political workers be recruited in schools? It is not possible," he said.

Var said the schools take even a single complaint from a parent seriously and that in such a scenario it is not possible to recruit political workers in schools. "Educational institutes are not a place to recruit political workers," he said.

2 shot dead by Army at LoC fence in J&K

Srinagar: Two locals were shot dead by Army close to border fence at the LoC in Keran sector of Kupwara on Tuesday. The police said a large cache of arms and ammunition, including armour piercing bullets, were recovered from them and they apparently came to facilitate infiltration of militants.

SC slims wall between US church and state

Days after its landmark ruling on abortion, the US Supreme Court on Monday drew more liberal anger for siding with a school football coach who led a Christian prayer with a group of players on the field after winning a match, possibly putting pressure on those from other religions to join in

RIGHT TO RELIGIOUS EXPRESSION

"Respect for religious expressions is indispensable to life in a free and diverse Republic," the court observed. The school board in Washington state violated refused to renew the coach's contract over the act

They regard secularism—which for centuries has been the liberal world's understanding of what it means to be neutral—as itself a form of discrimination against religion

Michael Dorf, Cornell Law School

INCREASING TILT

Monday's ruling threatens to upend a series of decisions since 1962 that have forbidden official-sponsored school prayer. It comes as the court has, in recent months, increasingly allowed employer exemptions based on religion from the Affordable Care Act's contraceptive mandate, which requires the employer-provided health coverage to include contraceptives for female employees

DISMANTLING THE WALL OF SEPARATION

One of the US' founding fathers Thomas Jefferson declared that when the American people adopted the establishment clause they built "a wall of separation between the church and state". Separation of state and church means that the former should not take decisions or make laws that favour one faith over the other. By ruling that states can decide their individual abortion rights, the court has opened the door for the Republican governments, backed by the Christian right-wing, to ban the practice based the faith of the majority

WHAT'S WRONG WITH COACH'S PUBLIC PRAYER?

Coach Joe Kennedy raised two major claims: that the school board violated his rights to freedom of speech and also to the free practice of his religion

Critics say though he is entitled to free practice of his religion, at the time of leading the prayer he was on the job, leading a football team. In other words, he was discharging his duties as a public employee when he held a prayer. Also, his action could have been viewed as having the board's approval

G7 calls out China over its dishonest trade practices

The grouping of world's foremost industrial nations vows to reduce dependence on Beijing

ELMAU CASTLE

G7 leaders on Tuesday condemned China's "non-transparent and market-distorting" international trade practices in an end-of-summit statement billed as "unprecedented" by the United States.

The statement, which also pledged to reduce "strategic dependencies" on China, came hours before the leaders join a larger group of their counterparts at a NATO summit in Madrid. There, the 30-member alliance was also poised to toughen its stance against Beijing in an update of its "strategic concept".

The United States has long cast a wary eye at China over its trade practices, which Washington believes are designed to accord an unfair advantage to Chinese companies over foreign firms.

Russia's invasion of Ukraine and Beijing's refusal to distance itself from Vladimir Putin has prompted other countries, including export giant Germany, to also reconsider their economic reliance on the Asian giant.

Beijing's increasingly strident claims over much of the South China Sea has also sparked alarm over its military ambitions. In their closing statement following a three-day summit in the Bavarian Alps, the G7 leaders signalled that they would seek to extricate themselves from economic dependence on China.

They vowed to "foster diversification and resilience to economic coercion, and to reduce strategic dependencies".

A US official called the collective statement "unprecedented in the context of the G7" in acknowledging "the harms caused by China's non-transparent, market distorting, industrial directives".

The leaders also voiced concern about human rights violations in China, urging Beijing to respect fundamental freedoms.

They stressed that the situation in Tibet, and in Xinjiang, where there is "forced labour", "is of major concern to us".

The statement also urged China to "honour its commitments" under the Sino-British Joint Declaration, in which Beijing agreed Hong Kong could keep some freedoms and autonomy for 50 years under a "One Country, Two Systems" model. It pressed Beijing to get Russia to withdraw from Ukraine. AFP

Pak objects to Chinese security firm on its soil

BEIJING

CHINA on Tuesday remained tight-lipped on a media report claiming that its all-weather ally Islamabad has objected to Beijing's request to permit its security firm to protect Chinese workers and assets in Pakistan after the recent spike in terrorist attacks against them.

Addressing a media briefing here, Chinese Foreign Ministry spokesman Zhao Lijian said Beijing and Islamabad are in close communication and coordination to protect the safety of Chinese institutions and personnel in Pakistan.

"I am not aware of the situation you mentioned," he said when asked for his comment on a media report stating that the Ministry of State Security had asked Islamabad in June to allow a Chinese security company to operate in Pakistan to guard its citizens and assets, however, Pakistan's Interior Ministry had objected to the proposal, stating that its security forces are able to protect Chinese nationals and assets.

Japanese media outlet Nikkei has reported that China wants its own security company to guard its citizens and assets in Pakistan following the recent attacks against its nationals in that country but Islamabad has been resisting the pressure from Beijing.

Pakistan in recent months has been witnessing spate of attacks against Chinese workers employed in scores of projects under the $60 billion China Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC).

The latest attack was in April when a woman suicide bomber from the Baloch Liberation Army (BLA) blew herself near a van carrying Chinese nationals near Karachi University. Three Chinese were killed in the incident. Baloch insurgent groups have previously carried out several attacks targeting the CPEC projects. PTI

SRI LANKA OPENS UP ITS OIL MARKET TO FOREIGN FIRMS

COLOMBO

CASH-STRAPPED Sri Lanka announced on Tuesday it was opening its oil market to foreign competition, a day after chronic fuel shortages forced a nationwide halt to petrol and diesel sales.

The South Asian island country is suffering an unprecedented economic crisis because it cannot afford to import essentials, including enough oil and gas to meet energy needs.

Lengthy blackouts are now a feature of daily life, while motorists have been forced to wait in daylong queues for scarce supplies of petrol.

A rationing system has been in effect but on Monday night the government banned fuel sales for two weeks to conserve Sri Lanka's limited stockpiles for emergencies.

Ministers said the crisis had made it an appropriate time to allow market entry from firms in oil-producing nations "to enable them to import and sell fuel using their funds", a cabinet statement said Tuesday.

Sri Lanka's oil industry was nationalised in 1961, though a third of the market was granted to a local unit of India's state-owned oil and gas company in 2003.

People queue along a street in Galle to buy LPG on Tuesday | AFP

Despite the sales ban, long queues of vehicles were seen outside pumping stations on Monday with motorists hoping to top up whenever supplies resumed. Sri Lanka defaulted on its $51 billion foreign debt in April and is currently in bailout talks with the International Monetary Fund. The government has dispatched ministers to Russia and Qatar to source discounted oil, while President Gotabaya Rajapaksa this week met with Moscow's envoy in Sri Lanka to discuss fuel and other imports.

A US delegation is also in Colombo to assess the country's needs after the United Nations issued a flash appeal to some 1.7 million urgently in need of food support.

President Joe Biden on Tuesday announced a $20 million grant to feed around 800,000 children while at the G7 Summit in Germany. AFP

Three killed as gunmen attack on anti-polio team

Peshawar: Three people, including two policemen, escorting an anti-polio vaccination team, were killed when unidentified assailants attacked them in Pakistan's restive north Waziristan tribal district, police said. The gunmen attacked the team, killing one of its members and two policemen escorting them, while it was on a door-to door anti-polio vaccination drive after nine new cases were reported this year in the district that borders Afghanistan. No group has claimed responsibility for the attack. The incident was condemned by Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Chief Minister Mehmood Khan. The chief minister has asked the police chief for the early arrest of those behind the attack. "The attackers on polio teams are enemies of our children," a statement issued by the Deputy Commissioner of North Waziristan Shahid Ali Khan said

Britain's aviation regulator orders Heathrow airport to cut landing fees

LONDON

BRITAIN'S aviation regulator on Tuesday ordered London Heathrow airport to cut landing fees, in the hope that airlines will reduce fares. It is expected that this proposal will please the airlines but airport believes that the move will result in poor experience for the passengers.

Bucking the trend of higher costs as inflation soars, the Civil Aviation Authority said Heathrow must cut charges as air traffic demand recovers.

In final proposals, the watchdog said the price per passenger would gradually fall 13% to $32.30 by 2026.

Landing charges paid by airlines to Heathrow are generally included in air fares. "Heathrow is among the most expensive airports in the world for its charges to airlines," the CAA added. Heathrow chief executive John Holland-Kaye said the "proposal will only result in passengers getting a worse experience at Heathrow as investment in service dries up". Heathrow, along with the global aviation sector, suffered huge losses during pandemic lockdowns.

According to The Guardian, John Holland-Kaye further said, "The CAA continues to underestimate what it takes to deliver a good passenger service, both in terms of the level of investment and operating costs required and the fair incentive needed for private investors to finance it." Agencies

Fire kills 51 after riot attempt in Colombia jail

Bogota: A fire at a prison in southwestern Colombia killed at least 51 people and injured a dozen more, prison authorities reported on Tuesday. The director of the national prison system, Tito Castellanos, told Radio Caracol that it's not clear if all of the dead were prisoners. He said the fire broke out during what appeared to be an attempted riot at the medium security prison in the city of Tulua. He said inmates had set mattresses on fire without considering the consequences. President Ivan Duque expressed condolences to the families of those who died and said he had ordered a probe into the incident

NATO set to invite Sweden, Finland today to join alliance

ISTANBUL

NATO leaders will formally invite Finland and Sweden to join the alliance Wednesday after Turkey inked a deal to drop its objections, NATO chief Jens Stoltenberg said.

"I'm pleased to announce that we now have an agreement that paves the way for Finland and Sweden to join NATO. Turkey, Finland and Sweden have signed a memorandum that addresses Turkey's concerns, including around arms exports, and the fight against terrorism," Stoltenberg said Tuesday after crunch talks in Madrid.

It comes as Turkey signed a memorandum with Finland and Sweden on Tuesday supporting the invitation for the Nordic countries to become members of NATO, the Finnish presidency said.

Turkey "got what it wanted" from Sweden and Finland before agreeing to back their drives to join the NATO defence alliance, President Recep Tayyip Erdogan's office said on Tuesday. The two countries will ban "fundraising and recruitment activities" for the Kurdish militants, and "prevent terrorist propaganda against Turkey," Erdogan's office said. The Kurdistan Workers' Party has been waging a decades-long insurgency against the Turkish state. AFP

Akash Ambani new chairman of Reliance Jio

Mukesh Ambani continues to be chairman of Jio Platforms, which owns all Jio digital services brands, including Jio

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

PASSING the baton to the next generation, Mukesh Ambani has resigned from the board of Reliance Jio, the telecom arm of the oil-to-retail conglomerate Reliance Industries (RIL), and handed over the company's reins to son Akash.

The $217 billion company in a statement said its board approved on June 27, 2022, the appointment of Akash Ambani as Chairman of the Board. Akash has also been appointed as non-executive director of Reliance Jio Infocomm.

"While the choice of succession was apparent, the timing of the decision is progressive. Akash was already inducted into the family business about 8 years back and has held important positions in Jio business, giving him enough time to get exposure to the business. His getting an opportunity to lead the business from the front at an early age of 31 years, gives him a great length of runway to take the business to new heights," said Bhavishya Sharma, MD and founder, Athena Executive Search and Consulting (AESC).

The Board also approved the appointment of Pankaj Mohan Pawar as managing director of Jio for a period of 5 years from June 27, 2022, as well as Raminder Singh Gujral and K V Chowdary, as additional directors of the firm. Raminder Singh Gujral and K.V. Chowdary have been designated as independent directors for a period of 5 years commencing on June 27, 2022.

As per the company, Jio recognises the specific contributions made by Akash to the digital services journey and rededicates him to even higher levels of responsibilities, going forward. He led key acquisitions made by Jio in the past few years and has also been involved with development of new technologies and capabilities including AI-ML and blockchain. Thus, the company expects Akash to continue to operate at the cutting-edges of innovation and technology to encourage an ecosystem that will further digital solution and make the power of data and technology more accessible to all, including those who are still at the margin.

Meanwhile, 65-year-old Mukesh Ambani, continues to be Chairman of Jio Platforms, the flagship company that owns all Jio digital services brands, including Reliance Jio Infocomm.

Ambani has 3 children - twins Akash and Isha and youngest son Anant. It is expected that Ambani may hand over the reins of the retail business to Isha, 30, who is married to Anand Piramal (son of Piramal Group's Ajay and Swati Piramal).

IMF DELIVERS TARGETS TO PAKISTAN IN STEP TOWARD RESTORING BAILOUT

Pakistan said on Tuesday that it has received economic and financial targets from the International Monetary Fund (IMF) that once agreed and ratified should pave the way for multilateral lender to unlock a suspended bailout programme. Pakistan desperately needs the money to avert a balance of payment crisis. Central bank foreign currency reserves have fallen to as low at $8.2 billion, barely enough to cover six weeks of imports, and the economy is reeling from a sharp depreciation in the Pakistani rupee and double-digit inflation. Pakistan entered a $6 billion IMF programme in 2019 spread over three years and three months, but with less than half the amount disbursed the IMF suspended the bailout earlier this year after the previous prime minister, Imran Khan, announced unfunded subsidies for the oil and power sectors. Khan's government was ousted in April. The new government, led by Shehbaz Sharif, has removed the subsidies, and made adjustments in a budget presented on June 10 that aimed at reducing the government's fiscal deficit, which was one of the IMF's key requirements.

HONG KONG

HONG KONG HOME PRICES SLIP IN MAY AMID HIGHER BORROWING COSTS

Hong Kong private home prices eased in May after a short-lived bounce, latest official data showed on Tuesday, as potential homebuyers turned wary over higher borrowing costs. Home prices last month slipped 0.3% from a month earlier, according to official data, compared with a revised 1% rise in April. Month on month, prices fell in January to March. The Asia financial hub was ranked by survey company Demographia as the world's most unaffordable housing market for the 12th consecutive year. Hong Kong's economy buckled this year under some of the world's most stringent restrictions to contain Covid-19 outbreaks but sentiment improved after the city eased most of the measures and there were waves of new development launches. The number of home transaction agreements in May jumped 59% from April to a 10-month high. The city's interbank market rate - which mortgage rates are linked to - are already rising. The Hong Kong Monetary Authority this month raised its base rate charged through the overnight discount window by 75 bps to 2%.

CHINA VOWS TIMELY POLICY MEASURES TO COPE WITH ECONOMIC RISKS

China will roll out tools in its policy reserve in a timely way to cope with more economic challenges, as Covid-19 outbreaks and risks from the Ukraine crisis pose a threat to employment and price stability, a state planner official said on Tuesday. Activity in the world's second-largest economy is beginning to recover after Covid-19 lockdowns in April and early May throttled growth, recent data has shown, but headwinds such as a property market downturn, weak consumer spending and the risk of more Covid outbreaks persist. The government will implement its existing support measures while improving its policy toolbox, Ou Hong, deputy secretary general at the National Development and Reform Commission, told a news conference. New policy support, depending on the circumstances, can be rolled out in a timely manner, he said. Ou acknowledged that Covid-19 outbreaks and the Ukraine crisis since March have threatened to undercut growth and driven up unemployment and inflation. China's monetary policy will continue to be accommodative to support economic recovery, People's Bank of China Governor Yi Gang said.

Pre-packed food items should attract nominal GST: Panel

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

THE GST Council on Tuesday accepted the interim report of the group of ministers (GoM) on rate rationalisation headed by Karnataka Chief Minister Basavaraj S Bommai. The panel also cleared extension to the GoM, State sources told TNIE.

The decision comes at a time when issues regarding revenue leakage due to the subjective nature of the term 'branded', were raised.

As per panel's recommendation, the pre-packed and labelled and other items like curd, lassi, puffed rice should attract nominal GST.

"The GoM's opinion was that the exclusion condition for such exemptions should be simplified by replacing the term 'branded' with the deterministic condition of being 'pre-packaged and labelled", source added.

The report also suggests hotel accommodation having room rent upto Rs 1,000 a night should attract 12% GST rate. The panel also recommended that on edible oil, inverted rate should be disallowed.

Earlier, states had highlighted the concerns over the signjficant fall in revenues from as against pre-GST regime with the narrowing down of scope of coverage in GST, a Government source said.

It is to be noted that committee had recommended a revenue neutral GST rate of 15.3%, when the new tax regime was introduced. Currently, the GST rate is only about 11.8%.

The GST Council on Wednesday will discuss the issue of extending compensation scheme to States beyond June 30.

It may be recalled that at the time of introduction of the GST framework in 2017, the Government had committed to protect 14% revenue buoyancy for States for five years.

The Centre had borrowed ₹1.10 trillion in FY21 and ₹1.59 trillion in FY 22 to compensate for the shortfall in GST compensation cess revenue. During pandemic due to sharp decline in GST revenue, part of the compensation had been given to States via loans.

The government had recently notified about the extension of levy of compensation cess till March 2026 in order to enable States to clear their dues.

Adani, family to fund ₹60,000 crore charity through share transfer

ARSHAD KHAN/DIPAK MONDAL @ New Delhi

LIKE Bill Gates, Warren Buffett and Azim Premji, Gautam Adani is likely to take the stock transfer route to fund his ambitious ₹60,000 crore donation pledge, said a person familiar with the development. Last week, Asia's richest billionaire Gautam Adani, and his family had pledged to donate ₹60,000 crore to charity to mark his 60th birthday.

The group, however, is yet to update on how it would be funding this cause and the timeline this massive amount would be spent. A statement from the company had said that the amount (committed to charity) would be administered through Adani Foundation.

"Adani would transfer ₹60,000 crore worth of his shares to the foundation. He will not write a cheque," said a person close to the development. Most billionaires worldwide, including India's top philanthropist and Wipro founder Azim Premji, routinely transfer shares owned by them to their foundation/trust or foundations of their choice to fund their charitable cause. These foundations also own a large chunk of shares in the company from which these shares are transferred, benefits when there is a rally in the market and gets rewarded with handsome dividends. According to a top investment banker, the pledged donation won't have any impact on group company share prices at the moment and these commitments are met over a very long period of time. "Adani Group's market capitalisaion is one of the highest in India and the promoters own a very large chunk of shares in all its seven listed companies... The worrying part is its high debt and exorbitant Price-to-Earnings ratio of many stocks which in future may impact the lofty valuation," he said requesting anonymity. JN Gupta, co-founder and MD, SES Governance, a proxy advisory firm, said, "It is his wealth and his shares, he has every right to do it. The transfer of shares would not affect the voting rights so I don't think minority shareholders will have any problems with the arrangement." Gautam Adani's net worth on Tuesday was pegged at around $96 billion, 12x more than the pledged ₹60,000 crore ($7.6 billion) at current valuations.

TDS on cryptocurrencies: Onus is on buyers

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

CBDT GUIDELINES ON VIRTUAL DIGITAL ASSETS

Last week, the income tax department released detailed guidelines on TDS for VDAs such as cryptos, and said exchanges have to deduct TDS if transactions happen on or through the exchange

THE Central Board of Direct Taxes(CBDT) on Tuesday clarified that in case of transfer of virtual digital assets (VDA) in a peer-to-peer (buyer to seller without going via an exchange) transaction, 1% tax deducted at source (TDS) will be deducted by the buyer before paying the consideration to the seller.

The tax deducted from the seller will be required to deposit with the government.

With this, the compliance burden will increase for the buyers. Last week, the income tax department released detailed guidelines on TDS for VDAs such as cryptos, and said exchanges have to deduct TDS if transactions happen on or through the exchange.

From July 1, transfer of VDAs will attract 1% TDS under section 194S of the Income tax Act. The department said the TDS should be on consideration for transfer of VDA less GST. "After deduction, the deductor is required to furnish a quarterly statement for all such transactions of the quarter on or before the due date prescribed in the Income-tax Rules, 1962," CBDT said. Also, if the consideration is in kind or in exchange of VDA, the person responsible for paying such consideration is required to ensure that tax required to be deducted has been paid in respect of such consideration, before releasing the consideration, it added. Amit Maheshwari, Tax Partner, AKM Global, a tax and consulting firm, said the previous circular on VDAs didn't deal with the withholding obligations in case of peer-to-peer transactions.

Rupee hits all-time low; 80-level at sight

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

INDIAN currency on Tuesday touched all-time low of 78.9 against dollar on persistent outflow of foreign funds and high crude oil prices. The local currency closed the day at 78.77, 43 paise below the previous close.

Foreign portfolio investors sold ₹1,244 crore worth of Indian equities and debt on Tuesday, while Brent crude rose 2% to trade around $113 a barrel. The huge expiry of dollar-rupee futures exacerbated the pressure to push rupee to fresh record low levels.

Currency analysts told TNIE that RBI intervention rescued rupee as it regained over 20 paise to close at a higher level.

"Sale of the US currency by some state-run banks, likely on behalf of the Reserve Bank of India, capped the rupee's further weakness," says Sriram Iyer, senior research analyst at Reliance Securities.

However, analysts believe despite RBI's interventions, the central bank can't stop rupee from going below 79 and ultimately 80 levels.

"While RBIs war chest remains robust, it will not fight the inherent weakening trend of rupee," says Upasna Bhardwaj, chief economist, Kotak Mahindra Bank.

Rupee has lost 5.7% since the beginning of the 2022 due to massive outflow of foreign funds and high crude oil prices. Since the start of 2022, FPIs have pulled out $29 billion from Indian markets.

BYJU'S delays payment for Aakash deal

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

EDTECH company BYJU'S, which acquired tutorial chain Aakash Educational Services for nearly $1 billion last year, is said to be delaying payments.

According to a news agency report, apart from other shareholders, Blackstone, which owned 38% in Aakash, were due to be paid this week, but the edtech company has sought an extension.

When asked about the delay in payments, BYJU's spokesperson said, "Aakash is our most successful acquisition till date and we are very proud to have them in our fold. The acquisition process of Aakash is fully on track and all payments are expected to be completed by the agreed upon date i.e., August 2022."

The spokesperson added that along with all our group companies, we continue to be perfectly poised to provide access to quality education in all learning segments from early learning to exam prep and career success.

Meanwhile, the online education provider on Tuesday announced Krishna Vedati as President of global growth and strategic initiatives for the company. Vedati is co-founder and CEO of creative coding platform Tynker. BYJU'S, which is valued at $22 billion, acquired Tynker in September last year, as part of its US expansion.

"The scheme extends an incentive of 6% to 4% on reducing basis on incremental sales for a period of five (5) years subsequent to the base year and one year of gestation period. Domestic Value Addition is expected to grow from the current 15-20% to 75-80%." Industrialist Pallonji Mistry passes away at 93

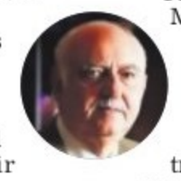
ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

PALLONJI SHAPOORJI MISTRY, head of Shapoorji Pallonji Group, which constructed Mumbai's iconic RBI old building in 1939, HSBC's six storeyed building opposite Flora Fountain in 1950 and TIFR in 1962, passed away on June 28 at the ripe age of 93.

He is survived by his wife Patsy, daughters Laila Rustom Jehangir, Aloo Noel Tata, sons Shapoor Mistry and Cyrus Mistry, and their respective families.



A Padma Bhushan awardee, he superannuated from the board of Tata Sons, the holding company of Tata Group, at 75. He held 18.4% in Tata Sons, which was sold to him by JRD Tata's brother and sister, making him its single -largest shareholder. He bequeathed his stake equally to his two sons Cyrus and Shapoor. Ratan Tata, former chairman of Tata Sons, inducted Cyrus Mistry on the board of the conglomerate and Shapoor Mistry on the board of Indian Hotels post Mistry's superannuation. Cyrus went on to become chairman of Tata Sons from 2012-2016 until he was ousted from there after a bitter feud with the old guard.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi took to Twitter condoling Mistry's death, saying, "Saddened by the passing away of Shri Pallonji Mistry. He made monumental contributions to the world of commerce and industry. My condolences to his family, friends and countless well-wishers. May his soul rest in peace." Pallonji was born on June 1, 1929, and did his schooling and college education in Bombay, as it was then called. He joined his family business, Shapoorji Pallonji & Company in 1947 at the age of 18, under the watchful eyes of his father, Shapoorji Pallonji Mistry.

Five years of GST: With multiple slabs, it's far from being simple tax regime

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

THE goods and services tax (GST) regime will complete five years on June 30, 2022. The new indirect tax system was brought in to simplify the erstwhile mechanism of levying multiple central, state and local duties.

It was introduced in a hurry with many flaws, some of which are yet to be fixed.

Despite all the government claims, GST is still far from being simple as there are multiple slabs, technical glitches on the portal, delays in refunds etc.

Under GST, there are currently 5 rate slabs – 3%, 5%, 12%, 18% and 28%. This apart from the fact that there are zero rated and exempted goods.

"The multiple tax slabs defeated the object of GST to simplify the taxation regime," said Charanya Lakshmikumaran, Partner, Lakshmikumaran & Sridharan Attorneys.

Tax rates have been tweaked multiple times in the past 5 years, which adversely impacted small businesses.

Sudipto Munde who is a professor at the National Institute of Public Finance and Policy (NIPFP), says there should only be one flat rate with zero rating for some essential items like food, grains, etc, and higher rate for luxury items.

In the initial phase of transitioning to GST, it was challenging for the small businesses to adapt to the new regime. Under the regime, compliance burden has increased. Now, the service providers have to file 25 returns a year as against two returns in earlier system. Meanwhile, tax payers with a turnover of at least 20 crore per annum need to comply with both e-way bill and e-invoicing.

According to Lakshmikumaran, delay in implementation of various provisions of the GST Acts like transitional provision, matching concept, monthly return, etc, forced the government to fall back to stopgap arrangements, which added to woes of the industry.

England white-ball captain Morgan retires

Eoin Morgan confirmed his retirement from international cricket and stepped down as England's white-ball captain after more than seven years on Tuesday. After England's dismal failure at the 2015 Cricket World Cup, Morgan spearheaded the team's white-ball transformation to a bold, attacking approach and unprecedented heights. He led England's to their first global 50-over title at the 2019 World Cup, and the No 1 ranking in one-day internationals and Twenty20s.

HAVE EARNED MY PLACE: VIHARI

Just before leaving to UK for the one-off Test, India batter spoke to Venkata Krishna B about his career, including his stop-start career

FOR Hanuma Vihari, part of only the Test team, opportunities have been few and far. Having got a chance to cement his place in the middle-order, the 28-year-old knows every opportunity counts. Before leaving for the UK for the one-off Test against England, the right-hander played league cricket in Chennai to get into the groove. Excerpts from an interview.

How do you sum up your career so far?
It has been good. I've been part of the team for four years now. We have played some amazing series, especially overseas (England and Australia). It has been a privilege to be part of those, it will be remembered for a long time. I hope it will continue for years to come.

Yours has been a stop-start career. As a batter, how challenging is to keep the rhythm going?
It can get challenging. But whatever games I get to play, I try to do my best for the team and contribute as much as I can. You can't complain when you are playing for India because there is lots of competition. You take whatever opportunity that comes your way so you try to make that place your own. That is what I was trying to do the last couple of years. Hopefully, going forward, I can cement my place.

How hard is to wait?
I'd to struggle in domestic cricket for a long time. I've been performing consistently in the domestic circuit to make it to the national team. So I know how to be patient in terms of waiting for my opportunities. So that journey itself shows I have been waiting patiently for a chance by performing well for years together. I would say I've earned my place in the Indian team.

Did missing out on the home series against New Zealand last year hurt?
No, definitely not hurt. Obviously I was disappointed. But again, it is something that is not in my control. Instead, I went to South Africa (with India A), got runs and made it to the team again. So that is all I can do it from my side — keep scoring runs as much as I can.

Occupying the crease for long is a trait not many have in the modern game. How do you go about it?
I've been playing that way for as long as I remember. It comes out of habit because I've been playing that way since early years. I don't like to throw my wicket away. It's something I take pride in: batting time and not giving away my wicket cheaply. Of course, you can get out to a low score to a good delivery, but you can't throw away your wicket. In cricket or be it any sport, you fail a lot of times and success is less compared to that. It is all about how you take those failures. If your mindset is not right or you are not in a good frame of mind, that is when I get disappointed. But, the Sydney knock was a turning point. I didn't get a lot of runs in that series, but that knock helped me gain confidence again. I feel at the end of the day, how many runs you make is all that matters.

When you are not getting opportunities or making runs, how do you keep your mind in a good space?
Once you gain experience, you will know how your mind works. I feel that is where the domestic cricket comes into play because you go through lot of situations and you are countering a variety of challenges each week in different conditions. You get into that space of mind where you are clear of what you should be doing. Sometimes whether it is pressure of performing or in case you are tired physically, you won't get into that space of mind. But, I try as much as possible to get into that right mindset before a game. Also what you have done through the years also comes handy.

How much did domestic cricket mold you?
I think there are still good quality spinners in the circuit. I don't agree when people say we don't play spin well. Because I feel it is lot about playing different format. You are playing more T20s and 50-overs and batters are not patient enough while playing spinners.

Berrettini out with Covid-19

AFP @ London

CONTENDER Matteo Berrettini was forced to pull out of Wimbledon on Tuesday after testing positive for coronavirus as women's top seed Iga Swiatek extended her winning streak to 36 matches.

The early action at the All England Club on Tuesday was overshadowed by the announcement from Berrettini — last year's runner-up — that he was out of the event. "I am heartbroken to announce that I need to withdraw from @wimbledon due to a positive COVID-19 test result," the 26-year-old Italian wrote on Instagram. He is the second man to withdraw from Wimbledon with Covid in two days after 2017 runner-up Marin Cilic of Croatia also tested positive. "I have no words to describe the extreme disappointment I feel," Berrettini, seeded eighth, said in his statement. "The dream is over for this year, but I will be back stronger."

World No 1 Swiatek coasted into the second round with a 6-0, 6-3 win against Jana Fett.

Swami Atmanand English Medium Schools : Bringing about a new transformation in school education in Chhattisgarh

Ever since the new government took over in Chhattisgarh in December 2018, school education was the top priority apart from the development of the farmers, tribals, and other derived communities. Chhattisgarh government has given special emphasis on the metamorphosis of school education. With an aim to take the school education to next level, the state government has established Swami Atmanand English Medium Schools in almost all the districts of Chhattisgarh. This initiative has injected a huge enthusiasm among children, especially those belonging to economically weaker sections to join these schools. The scheme targets to make quality education affordable and accessible for all. Besides, it has translated the dreams of poor children to study in an English medium school into a reality. With the commencement of these educational institutions in both English and Hindi mediums, people have also got an opportunity to make choices. Starting with just three schools three years ago, the scheme has turned into a huge success so far. As many as 52 schools had been started in the first phase which witnessed a heavy influx of applications for admission. Currently, 171 Atmanand schools are being operated in the state. Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel has announced the opening of 50 more Atmanand schools in view of the surge in demand for seats in these schools. Preparations for the same are in full swing. Chhattisgarh Government has decided to establish these schools in all the ninety assembly constituencies of the state in the coming years. This will certainly increase the opportunities for children coming from rural areas to study in English medium schools and compete with other students studying in top-ranked institutions. This noble initiative has indeed transformed school education within a very short span of time and set an example for the rest of the country, undoubtedly.

The motive of the Scheme

The utmost objective of this scheme is to provide quality education at a very nominal cost. The State Government had started the Swami Atmanand English Medium Scheme with the aim of imparting good quality education through English medium to children, coming from economically weaker sections of the society. Government-run English medium schools were opened under this scheme having state-of-the-art facilities and infrastructure. So far 171 schools have been established in the entire state this year. These schools are in great demand, particularly in the far-flung areas and in the rural part of Chhattisgarh.

State-of-the-art infrastructure

The financial distress being faced by parents over the Covid-19 pandemic led to a surge in demand for seats in Swami Atmanand Excellent English Medium School. Sufficient numbers of English and Hindi lecturers, physical education teachers, librarians, office assistants, watchmen, and part-time sanitation workers have been recruited in these schools. Apart from excellent examination results in the session 2019-20, schools have also made their mark in online education. This resulted in more than 30 percent of children studying in private schools shifting to these schools.

Small beginning with 03 schools, reached up to 171 in 03 years

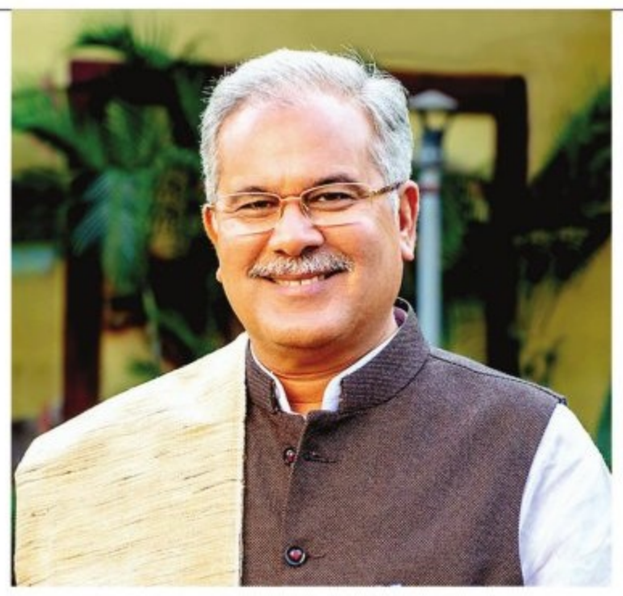
Soon after the cabinet's approval, a total of three Swami Atmanand Excellent English Medium Schools were started in Raipur from the academic session 2019-20. Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel took the initiative to open government English medium schools in the state to provide opportunities for a bright future to the children belonging to economically weaker sections. Fifty-two schools were started within a short span of time. The number increased to 119 last year. At present 171 schools are running successfully. Seeing the huge demand, the state government has announced to start of another 50 schools in the coming year, to meet the growing demand.

Each class has now 50 seats

In the wake of the demand, the seats in each class have been increased. Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel took a decision in this regard on April 14. He directed to increase the number of seats in each class from 40 to 50. After the announcement of the Chief Minister, School Education Principal Secretary Dr. Alok Shukla issued a letter to all the District Collectors to take necessary steps in this regard. The department of School education sought a proposal from every district collector for the establishment of new Swami Atmanand English Medium Schools in their respective districts.

50 New English medium schools are in the offing

At present, more than one lakh 35 thousand students are getting quality education in English medium free of cost in the 171 Swami Atmanand English Medium Schools of the state. Swami Atmanand English Medium Schools are in high demand. Emboldened by the demands for admission, Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel has announced the opening of 50 more new Swami Atmanand English Medium Schools in the state. In the current year's state budget, the state government has made a provision to open 32 Hindi medium schools—having a capacity to accommodate 17 thousand 500 students, on the lines of Swami Atmanand English Medium Schools. Now with the opening of 50 new schools in June 2022, 30 thousand more children will be able to get their education here.



It is quite encouraging that Swami Atmanand Schools have become a brand of a kind, and they are in high demand among parents and students. That is why every parent desires to get one's children admitted to these schools. Seeing the huge demand, the state government is increasing the number of schools as per the requirement. There will be more such schools in the coming years. Even with increasing numbers, the quality of the education would not at all be compromised and the children will be having sky-high confidence.

Bhupesh Baghel
Chief Minister, Chhattisgarh

14 New schools are to be started in Durg district

Seeing the ever-increasing demand 14 new schools are proposed in Durg district alone. These schools would be opened in Ghughwa, Amaleshwar, Ahiwara, Jamul, Utai, Sector 4-Bhilai, Chhawni Bhilai, Faridnagar Bhilai, Borsi Bhilai, JP Nagar Camp-2 Bhilai, Charoda, Sector-7 Bhilai and Patan. Out of 50 new Atmanand schools, 14 new schools will be opened in the Durg district. This includes 11 English and 3 Hindi medium schools. The district administration has sent a proposal in this regard to the state government, which is likely to be approved shortly.

Atmanand schools getting huge response in admissions, lottery system adopted for transparency

Seeing the increasing demand in admission the school education department has adopted transparency in the process through a lottery system. More than 27 thousand applications have been submitted for admission in nine government English medium schools in Raipur alone. Even the children coming from remote and far-flung areas are having access to better quality education through the English medium with the launching of Swami Atmanand Schools. The schools have gained huge popularity among the people of the state with more than one lakh 48 thousand applications received for 34 thousand 652 seats in 126 schools out of 171. In Mohla of Rajnandgaon district, parents have arranged a bus service for transportation of their children who study in Government English Medium School, which is operating from village Gotatola to Mohla since last year. It is jointly run by the parents of about 30 children. This shows how much success this scheme has already savoured.

Now Atmanand Hindi Medium Schools are also coming

After the huge success of English medium schools, the state government is now planning to establish Hindi Medium schools also. Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel on his official Twitter handle said that providing quality education is among the topmost priority of the state government. All possible efforts will be made to maintain the quality of education in Swami Atmanand Schools. Like Swami Atmanand English Medium School, Swami Atmanand Hindi Medium School will be started in every district of Chhattisgarh. The decision taken by the chief minister is being considered a significant step toward better opportunities in the state in the time to come.

Gender Equality to be maintained

Children belonging to economically weaker sections will be given priority in admission in these schools except for admission in classes 1, 6, and 9. For this, the parent has to produce an income certificate. Most importantly, in a bid to promote equal learning opportunities free from gender-based discrimination, 50 percent of seats in Swami Atmanand English Medium Schools have been reserved for girls. The admission process for the academic year 2022-23 has begun in these schools. The seat reserved for girls will be allotted to boys in case they are left vacant.

25% seats for BPL students

In these schools, 25 percent of seats will be reserved for students belonging to the BPL category. In case the number of applications outnumbers the seats available, students will be selected through the lottery system. Apart from this, a total of two seats have been reserved for the beneficiaries of 'Mahtari Dular Yojana'. Photocopy of documents including Aadhar card, birth certificate, domicile certificate, caste certificate, a report card of the previous class, and school transfer certificate is required at the time of admission. This gesture has been widely appreciated.

Only medium & method of education would be different

Children who are already getting their education through the Hindi medium will be allowed to continue their education in the same school. If necessary, classes in these schools can be organized in two shifts so that a child can easily study in Hindi or English medium as per his/her choice. The government schools which are already being operated in the district are to be transformed into English medium schools. District collectors have been asked to take care of the renovation and appointment of teachers in the proposed schools that are to be completed before June 15.

JUNE has been a busy month in the F&B space with a restaurant cropping up every other day. And many more are on their way.

One of the latest has been The Big Baadshah in Marathahalli which launched on June 3. They planned to open before March 2020 but the pandemic had other plans. Owner of the Bollywood-themed bar and restaurant Udaya Mogaveera says, "We had just finalised the design plans and the pandemic hit. So, we had to wait it out. And once the market started opening up post the second lockdown, we decided to finish up the pending work and finally launch it."

The pandemic hasn't been kind to the food and beverage industry, but the rise in diners now has been a big relief. And restaurateurs want to fully cash in on this. "Being near a corporate hub means that we have several working professionals coming here to dine and unwind," says Mogaveera.

Targeting those who have the luxury of working from home is Paper and Pie in Indiranagar. "The coffee lounge resto cafe set up also has conference rooms and podcast rooms that can be used to shoot videos," says co-founder Vamsi Reddy, adding, "The amount paid for these rooms can be availed through food and drinks as well. It works on a credit system."

While the launch of Paper and Pie just happened to be around now, Meter Bar, which is launching today on Bannerghatta Road, was a strategic move by the owners.

"June is also the annual liquor renewal month so that gives us an edge," says Shylendra Kumar, director, Aventhi Hospitality. Explaining the 'drink by the meter' concept they have employed, he says, "Once an order is placed and served, an individual meter will start keeping track of time. It can be paused when the drink is repeated. The meter starts with a base price of each drink which stays constant for a select period and then increases by a certain amount after set intervals." Different drinks have different meter rates based on the drink's MRP.

A hotspot that's been the talk of the town has been Jalebbi on Cunningham Road, which launched in the last week of May. Coming from Mumbai is Hitchki in Whitefield.

Speaking about the bar format with a Bollywood theme, Aji Nair, chief advisor and consultant of Mirah Hospitality, says, "While we understand that there are other bar options also on the premises, customers are mostly from the corporate crowd; this has been great for us as offices around the area have opened up. Those who want to dance and enjoy Bollywood music stop by on Fridays for our Bollywood music night. We have been strategically changing the light set-up to become dinner over night so that we create more of a bar vibe, something we haven't noticed our neighbours do." He adds that they also serve nostalgic food and drinks like Maggi noodles and Iranian chai.

QUESTIONS

1. Bengaluru boasts of having one of the oldest rock formations on Earth dating back to 3,000 million years. In 1916, Dr WF Smeeth of the Mysore Geological Department termed the rocks as 'Peninsular Gneiss' and was declared a protected monument by the Geological Survey of India. One of the four famous Kempegowda towers is built on this rock which is within a well-known garden in the city. Name the garden.

2. 'Bugle Rock', which means 'Kahale Bande' in Kannada is a well-known rock boulder standing on a high point within the compound of a historic temple complex in south Bengaluru. It is believed that soldiers of the early rulers used to blow a bugle atop this rock whenever there was a military alert. Name the temple complex on which the 'Bugle rock' stands.

3. Bengaluru had abundant granite rocks and hillocks in and around the city. Interestingly, there is an ancient rock cut cave temple in south Bengaluru dating back to Chola times. The temple was extended and revamped by Kempegowda I during the 16th century. The temple draws huge crowds on Sankranti every year to witness a rare sight of sun rays passing through a stone arch and falling on the Shivalinga inside the cave. Name the temple.

Experience a superfast performance at Manasi Prasad's new concert

ISHRATH MUBEEN

A GOOD fusion performance must have the right balance of elements from both traditional classical music and world music, believes Manasi Prasad, classical musician and director of the Indian Music Experience Museum (IME). Prasad brings the essence of classical music with a contemporary expression in her upcoming concert 'The Manasi Prasad Ensemble' to be held on July 1.

Although this is not the first time Prasad is stepping out of the classical music genre, her upcoming concert features a first-of-its-kind superfast (at the speed of 140 bpm) composition. "This performance will require all the artistes to be in sync to present it flawlessly. The rehearsals were fun," Prasad says, adding that the idea behind this ensemble is to make music accessible to the younger generation, which is otherwise widely enjoyed by the older generations. "With regard to understanding music, there is a feeling of intimidation or a barrier that stops the younger generation from being a part of such concerts. They believe it could be too deep or technical for them," she says.

The show will feature Mani's jazz-based composition, Hard Sky, the improvisation of which has a touch of both Carnatic ragas and the jazz beat. The concert will also feature an arrangement of 'Tyagaraja Kriti', a Carnatic music composition, and a Hindustani classical composition based on 'Raag Miya Malhar'. "This ensemble includes a mix of elements, each in its right place. This definitely is a step forward in solidifying my musical experiments into a band format," she says.

(The Manasi Prasad Ensemble will take place at 7.30 pm on July 1 at Bangalore International Centre, Domlur)

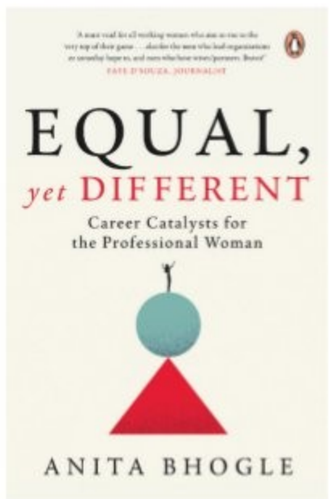
'EARNING POWER ALONE CANNOT ALWAYS DICTATE EVERY FAMILY DECISION'

TURNING PAGES



EXCEPT for women who manage to build considerable domain expertise and a formidable résumé before taking a short maternity break, most others stand the risk of getting sidelined and seeing their career graph dip in some manner. Unless they are allowed to grab good opportunities that come their way later in life, they will never get a chance at catching up and stand the risk of always remaining distant second earners. True equality demands that every career move for both the spouses takes into account the implications for the other spouse's career. Earning power alone cannot always dictate every family decision.

If spouses were to take turns at prioritizing their careers, the man could need to compromise his career from time to time and, as a result, could meet with some what lower success as compared to when his wife would have constantly taken the backseat. I wonder how many men would be willing to do that. I also wonder whether a woman's conditioning would allow her to find the idea of a less successful husband attractive! Our conditioning is so deep-rooted that it makes changing mindsets really challenging and, as you can see, there are no surefire answers.

Women from my generation, now in their fifties and sixties, went into marriage assuming it would last forever. It was understood that it would be the woman who would have to make the most adjustment. That is what the family and society expected. The idea of 'the complete man' came a bit later. Today's young girls are not satisfied being the supporting cast they would like to be leading ladies. And I don't see any reason why they should not, as girls are doing all the things that men did, including taking on financial responsibilities. Young women today are clear about their need for financial autonomy, and want to be equal partners in sharing expenses and contributing to buying a house. As more women jump into careers, they need support from parents, and often it is the girl's parents whose help is sought in managing the home and kids.

Traditional-minded parents are not comfortable living in their daughter's home, certainly not for an extended period of time. Women believe that if they co-own the home along with their husbands, it goes a long way in creating an equal status for them as well as their parents.

Disparity in earning between the spouses has the potential to alter the power dynamics at home. The widening of the gap diminishes the share of voice of the lower earner even further. They find it difficult to justify their time away from home as they feel that the money earned by them minus the money spent doesn't make it worth while.

The argument is flawed at two levels. Firstly, household expenses should be looked at as a percentage of the total income of the household, not the woman's salary alone. Besides, money isn't the only reason why women work. So, when you quit, you are probably giving up your entire career, your qualifications and your professional worth along with your earnings of a couple of decades in the future, not simply the month's or year's salary alone. At such times, just hanging in there and waiting for the tough phase to pass is the best advice anyone can give you. In any case, never quit when you are emotionally vulnerable. Sharing your problem with others could lead you to new solutions or at least make you realize that you are not the first person to face such a problem, and encourage you to carry on.

Demanding Equality

The gender wage gap has been a long-standing issue all over the world. The degree varies across geographies and across professions or sectors. Normally, this is attributed to the fact that men negotiate harder, but I suspect that it also has to do with the problem that women don't seem to be comfortable demanding more, saying that they deserve more.

The rise of fascism

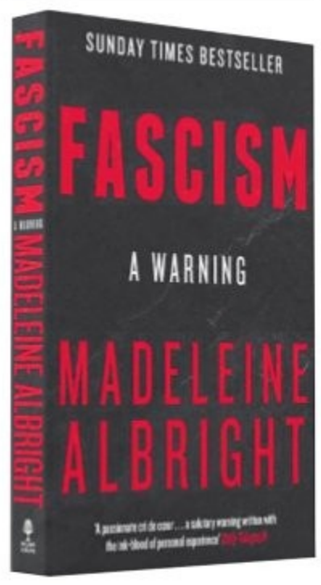
FLYLEAF
VR FEROSE

(The author is a technologist based in Silicon Valley who is gently mad about books)

TOTALITARIAN, authoritarian, fascism, majoritarianism — these words are used a lot, but what do they really mean? The first three are forms of government characterised by a strong central rule that attempts to control and direct all aspects of individual life through coercion and repression. A totalitarian state has unlimited power and controls virtually all aspects of public and private life. An authoritarian state is characterised by a strong central government that allows people a limited degree of political freedom but controls individual freedom and the political process, without constitutional accountability. Fascism combines totalitarianism and authoritarianism; it involves an extreme devotion to one's nation over all others and a belief in racial purity. A majoritarian government is run by the majority community, disregarding the views and wishes of the minority.

Modern dictatorships such as Venezuela under Hugo Chávez and Cuba under Fidel Castro typify authoritarian governments. While the People's Republic of China under Chairman Mao Zedong was a totalitarian state, modern-day China is more accurately described as authoritarian because its citizens are allowed limited personal freedoms. Sri Lanka opted for majoritarianism in which Sinhalas rule the country. Following the attack on Ukraine, a growing number of analysts are calling Vladimir Putin's regime "fascist", meaning that Putin's Russia genuinely resembles Mussolini's Italy or Hitler's Germany where fascism first sprouted.

The recent Ukraine crisis forced me to look back in history to understand what the future may look like. I started by watching the 10-episode documentary Evolution of Evil (available for free on YouTube). It is a great historical summary of Mussolini, Stalin and Hitler in Europe; Gaddafi, Saddam and Osama in West Asia; Mao, Tojoand Kim Jong 2 in Asia; and Papa Doc in Africa. Will Putin join this list? Here are some of my insights into the current Ukraine-Russia war.



Of the nine nuclear countries, Russia has the largest stockpile of nuclear warheads (6250)and if Europe and the US sense a real threat, World War 3 is around the corner. Maybe the only way out is to arrive at a bargaining position where Putin's own survival is assured. Or if his own people turn on him and he gives up his leadership voluntarily, which is impossible to conceive.

The Dictator's Handbook: Why Bad Behavior Is Almost Always Good Politics by Bruce Bueno de Mesquita and Alastair Smith has turned conventional wisdom on its head. They introduce a ground breaking new theory of the real rules of politics: leaders do whatever keeps them in power, regardless of the national interest!

While there are many biographies of dictators, I want to focus on what gives rise to authoritarianism. The Origins of Totalitarianism by Hannah Arendt is a 1951 classic and a profoundly relevant, thought-provoking book. From her own personal experience of escaping Hitler and the Third Reich, she details the preconditions for the rise of Nazism and Stalinism.

In the 2018 book Fascism: A Warning, Madeline Albright, the first woman to serve as the US Secretary of State, mentions that there is a more virulent threat to international peace and justice now than at any time since the end of World War 2. As Primo Levi said, "Every age has its own Fascism" and we are living through ours now!

A DUMMY'S GUIDE TO SHOPPING AT IKEA

HRIDAY RANJAN
Urban Bourbon

(Writer, comedian)

THE coming of Ikea to Bengaluru caused quite the flutter among citizens. News of long lines, traffic jams, and three-hour queues caused citizens to raise their brows out of curiosity. If you're among those that bought into the hype, here's a column that will help you.

0 sells homes for the Instagram generation. Home interiors that are affordable, but also photogenic. Gone are the days when you would mentally wrestle with your neighbourhood carpenter for designs and prices. Ikea provides you reel-friendly houses at seemingly affordable prices. The kind of furniture that will make your relatives jealous without blowing the lid off your savings.

At the outset, I must admit that I am not the target audience for Ikea. I have mostly lived in hostels. My idea of a room is a bed, a table, and an ashtray. I have brought stray dogs and cats to live in my room with the graciousness of Krishna offering shelter to Sudama. My floor is used as the dustbin and thanks to my hair, you'll find enough strands to excite homicide detectives. Ikea is clearly too fancy for me. But who has ever been able to curb human curiosity?

The first thing you'll notice is that Ikea trusts you more than your Class 7 class teacher. They expect you to shop, pick the products, take them home - and FIX THEM YOURSELF! This is clearly a lack of market research, for we Indians like our work done for us — whether it is cooking, washing, or booking tickets on Tatkal. We like our food prepared, our tea served hot. In fact, if you walk into your local furniture shop, they will seat you, show you around the shop, serve you chai, pack and parcel your items, and even deliver them to your doorstep.

But here are the tips one must follow before visiting an Ikea for the first time. As someone with experience, I implore you to follow these rules. Visiting an Ikea is a whole day's work. Exercise, practice walking, and hydrate. If you bring children along, do apply for a Padmashri medal for your patience. Also, remember to carry a mask with you. They don't allow you inside without one. Secondly, all the 'oohs' and 'aahs' while looking at the products could spread the virus among the crowd there. If you feel like taking a break, you'll find wonderful sofas and beds laid out for you. If people question, tell them you're testing the bed's performance during deep sleep.

Since Ikea is a foreign company, we are mostly at our best behaviour. Honestly, a few hours inside Ikea, I began to miss the homely feel of my local Big Bazaar — with the red patches of paan, and filth thrown here and there. The next tip is to get to the cafeteria first. Ikea offers unlimited coffee and soft drinks for customers, and if you're like me — you'll walk out feeling like Superman on drugs after consuming all the free coffee. Remember to first stuff yourself with food, you'll need the energy for the rest of the day. The assistants in Ikea all wear T-shirts that say 'Hej'. Apparently, it means 'Hello' in Swedish. Don't assume it's the assistant's name and embarrass yourself like I did. Finally, do the most Indian thing. Take pictures, and then compare prices online or with your local furniture shop. By the time you return home tired and exhausted, you'll crash on your bed, and realise that you had the most beautiful bed right in your room!

It's a 'double shift' for Indian women who choose to opt for career

The Indian women are among the most overworked in the world — they spend on average 299 minutes on housework and 134 minutes on care-giving per day, shouldering 82 per cent of domestic duties. They are burdened with work from such a young age that many are forced to drop out of schools, leave the labour force, and give up dreams of financial independence. For those who have the privilege of choosing to have a career, the only way they can make this viable is by doing a 'double shift'. Women are expected to do most of the housework, childcare, and care-giving, whether they have jobs or not. Lies Our Mothers Told Us (Aleph) dares to ask and evaluate if, in our patriarchal society, the assertion that 'women can have it all' comes at too high a price. Taking a unique look into the state of women in India's middle class in the 21st century, the book uses the available data and in-depth interviews to reveal the real lives of Indian women across the country. Authored by an award-winning journalist with over 20 years of experience in the field, Nilanjana Bhowmick's book is an epiphanic read for every aspiring Indian woman. —IANS

FEMALE CHARACTERS HAVE STRONG ROLES IN BAIRAGEE

Madhumita, Arjun Das team up for Angamaly Diaries Hindi adaptation

RAM VENKAT SRIKAR

ACCLAIMED Malayalam film Angamaly Diaries is being adapted in Hindi by filmmaker Madhumita. The adaptation will star Arjun Das in the lead role. Abundantia Entertainment, the production house that's also co-producing the Hindi remake of Suriya's Soorarai Pottru, is backing the Hindi version of Angamaly Diaries.

Confirming the development, Madhumita says, "We are calling it an adaptation and not remake because it's my interpretation of Lijo Jose Pellissery's film. Set in the rural side of Goa that's not represented often, and I spent nearly three months researching the background and culture of the land." The shooting of the film is complete and post-production is currently in progress. The makers are yet to lock a title and release date of the film, and further details related to the project are expected to be unveiled shortly. The film marks the Hindi debut for both Madhumita and Arjun.

In addition to this, the Hindi remake of Madhumita's previous feature film, KD Engira Karuppudurai, is also in the works, with the filmmaker set to helm the remake too.
